Dear Alito,
You are very nice friend. Even though we've been knowing for only a few months. I hope that you may keep that attitude. Maybe you're just kind to me but not to others. I hope that you may enjoy your one more year in High School. And may you reach your goal. Well, that all I can say and that when you will see me some where during summer vacation, please don't know me at all. Because I have a reputation to maintain. And here I say

Seniors Finally Make It

The outstanding class of 1980 rallied in completing its final year in high school. Leading the pack were president, brainy Barbara Jeantrout, vice president, merry Mona Lee, secretary, terrific Tammy Lau, and treasurer, loony Luisa Echon. To finance the year's activities, the senior class staged many money makers including: car washes, bake sales, and concession stands, and the Christmas Ball. Advising the great senior class of 1980 were Mr. Clark, Mrs. Rivera, and Mr. and Mrs. Mortenson who made it an enjoyable and memorable year.

ASB Officers And Commissioners Rule With Iron Hand

Interrupted from her daydreams, Beatriz Beltran yawned and opened her eyes to hear the tardy bell signal the beginning of her third period leadership class. Beatriz had run for A.S.B. president the year before and won. As the summer passed she dreamed of all the power in this newly acclaimed throne. Yet, as the school year started, she soon realized that her visions of wide acclaim began to diminish as the role of the limited power of A.S.B. president came into perspective. As class began, CO Miles Rodick interrupted their swooping paper airplanes as the entire class was engaged in another daily ritual of hit the teacher.

BANG! . . . OOPS! . . . Yes, again the victim of another well-aimed shot. Ernie Rojas, the A.S.B. vice-president was the culprit. It wasn't that he didn't like the class or anything else, it was just another one of those days . . . Sitting afar, he noticed the the multi-talented Valerie Fort and Susan Rykowski, A.S.B. secretary and treasurer was engaged in another game of tic-tac-toe on the desk. Providing this year's students with outlandish rallies, assemblies, and dances were but a few activities offered by the student body. With each new member of this year's A.S.B. troupe, there was the annual ritual of officer initiation. Running through the halls with nothing but the most ridiculous attire any old officer could get his hands on. These new officers could do nothing but wait until the day would come when it would be their turn to fight back!

Spiritleaders

As the hushed crowd of spectators paused from the play of the game, sudden cheers of exhilarated spirit scattered throughout the audience. The game had only begun, but still the enthusiasm of this crowd remained calm. Then as if out of nowhere veteran varsity head cheerleader Theresa Gandy gave the call for the Alisal Spell-out. As Theresa rang out with, "Give me an A", the whole crowd responded as fellow cheerleaders Norma Orozco, Jami Hyde, and Nancy Hibbs joined in for the cheer. The only new face in this year's squad was first year senior cheerleader Lisa Steele.

Rock On

As the sound of pom-pons rustled behind the five who were to perform, the clock slowly crept toward halftime. It was a minute and a half until they would present their new routine and returning head songleader Lisa Navalta still needed the music to perform this routine. Though recently returned from camp during the summer and having won the spirit stick, this new 1980 squad consisted of only two returnees. With Natalie Lopez, Sunday Sirwet, Idalia Magdaleno and returning songleader Cheryl Irwin, the routine was to become yet another success.

As their frozen faces stared endlessly into the awaiting crowd, the shyness which they had experienced in the beginning soon turned into an uncontrollable fever. Their determination and will to turn the spirit of the audience toward the opponent not only added to the rowdiness of the game but gave them pride in accomplishing their goal. Headed by sophomore, Delfina Sandoval, the JV squad proved that Alisal still held high its spirit throughout this year's games and rallies.

Providing both boundless energy and laughter were but a few of the attributes of the Alisal mascots, Charlene Armstrong and Robin Aman. Showing their endless supply of enthusiasm at the rallies and games, they made their spirit even more recognizable in giving us a display of their wild and crazy antics. Directed by Mrs. Linda Luna, the whole spiritleading squad helped Alisal become a contributor to our giant MBL powerhouse.

Spiritleaders, Band, and Crowd Lift Trojan Enthusiasm

1. Cheerleaders watch in suspense.
2. Mark Amiya charges for yardage.
3. The Trojan Band, led by Victor Aguilar, awaits its grand entrance.
4. The mighty Trojan crowd stands for the kick-off.
5. Alisal's "Green Machine" makes its way onto the field.

The mighty Trojan Spirit highlighted the 1979 Football Jamboree. "Wear white on Jam-Nite" was the theme supported by many Trojans and emphasized by Kristi Sullivan, the former Commissioner of Rooters. The crowd was entertained between games by the sounds of the band and cheering of the spiritleaders. Posters, roll-outs, and white carnations lifted the Trojan Spirit. The "Green Machine's" Jamboree night production remains a memorable one with its substantial effort.

The Fourth But The Best

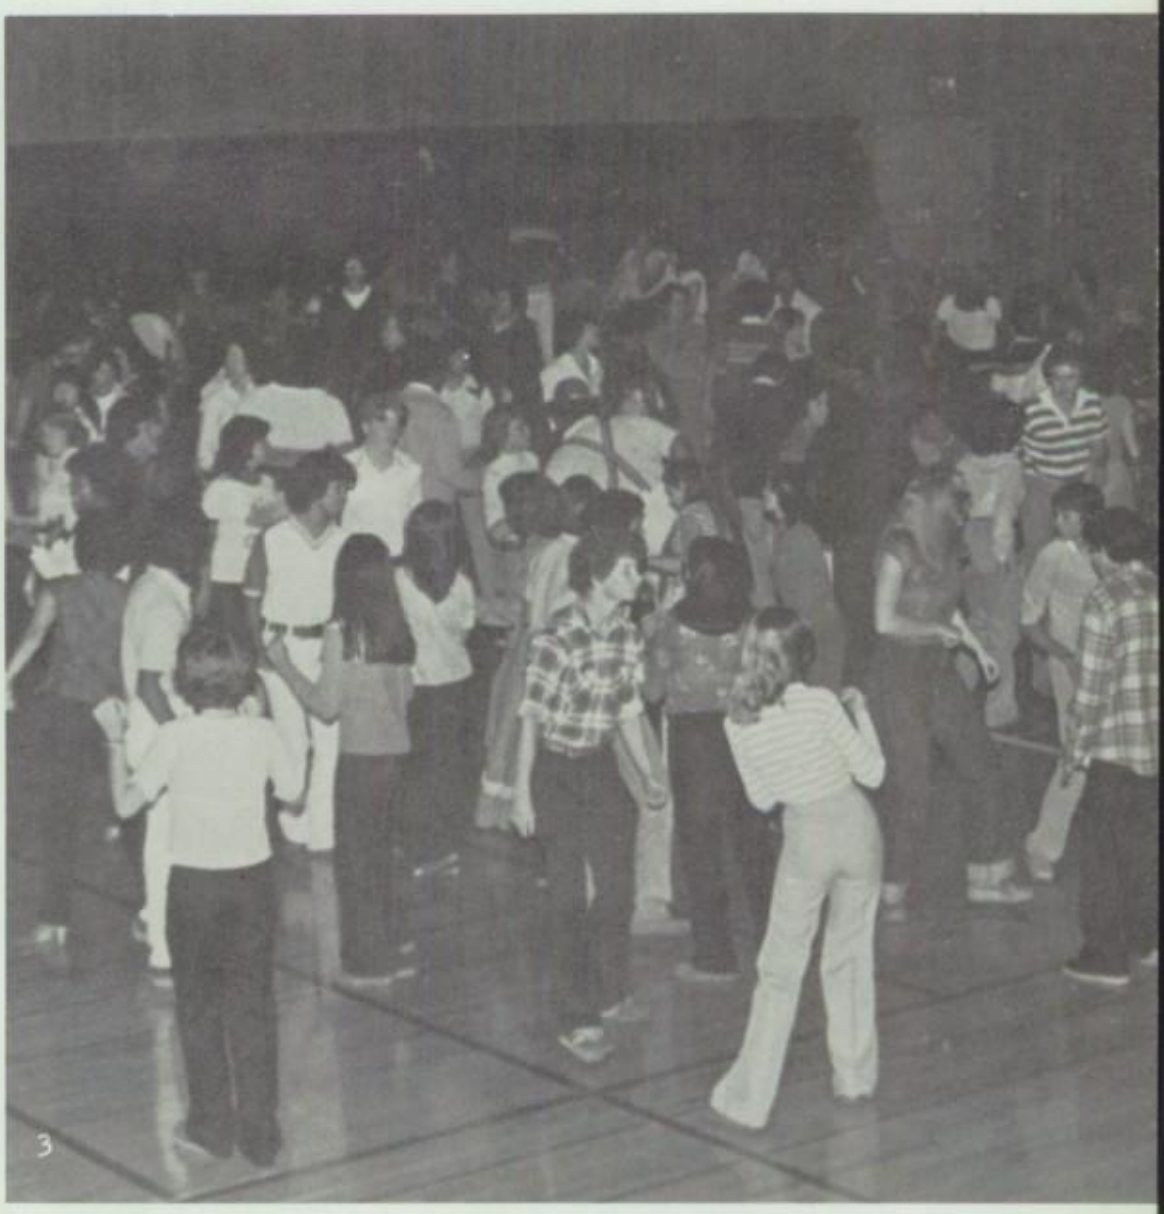
As darkness settled over Alisal High, I walked slowly up to the entrance of the school. The atmosphere was full of excitement, my heart was pounding. I saw a shimmering light through the doors. I was bedazzled by the spectacular lights illuminated by Roberts' Disco Sounds. I quickly got into the music and let my feet do the dancing.

This was all part of the spectacular senior class playnight. The evening started with games that brought back memories of being a freshman, food to please even the pickiest, and the revealtions of the class polls.

1. Senior class president, Barbara Jeantrout announces class polls.
2. Seniors snug up for last dance.
3. Class polls winners pose for shot.
4. D.J. Robert Pulido plays next disco sound.

Halloween Dance, A Real Treat

Pumpkins, costumes, and hanging skeletons filled the Alisal gym with a Halloween atmosphere. Students were entertained by the electrifying performance of "SPACE" and danced to the beat of Robert's Disco Sounds. William Sims, Linda Barragan, Richard Villareal, and Alicia Fatland were awarded pumpkins for the most original costumes.



1. Gene Simmons (Richard Villareal) displays his tongue.
2. The Great Pumpkin watches as students dance to the beat.
3. The Halloween Dance proves to be a real treat.

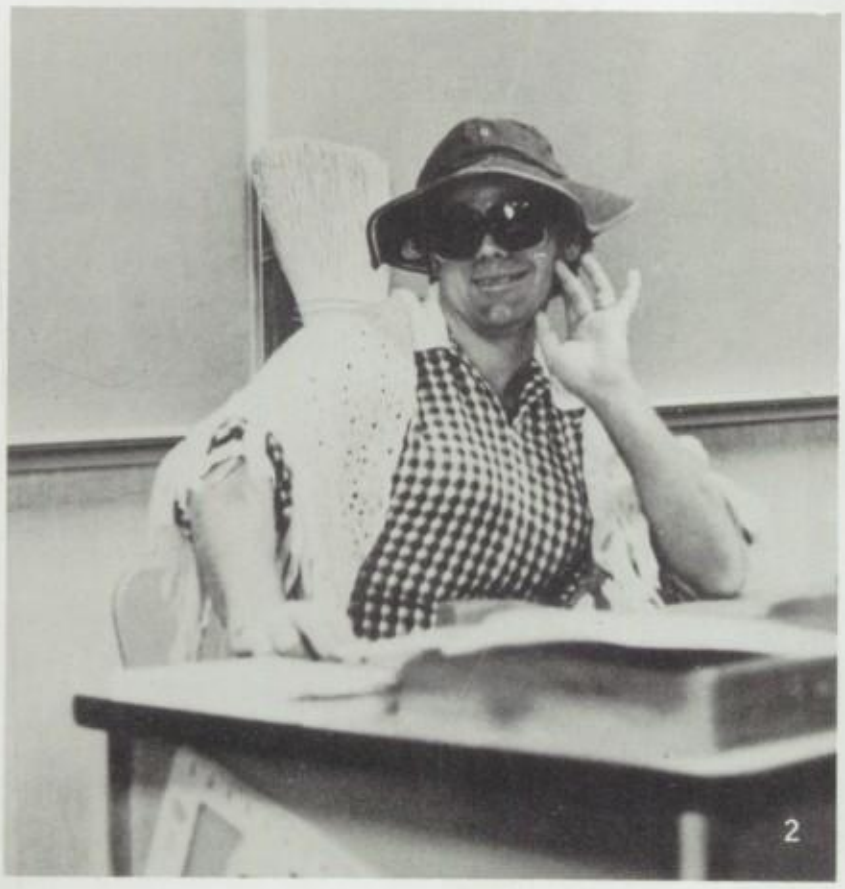
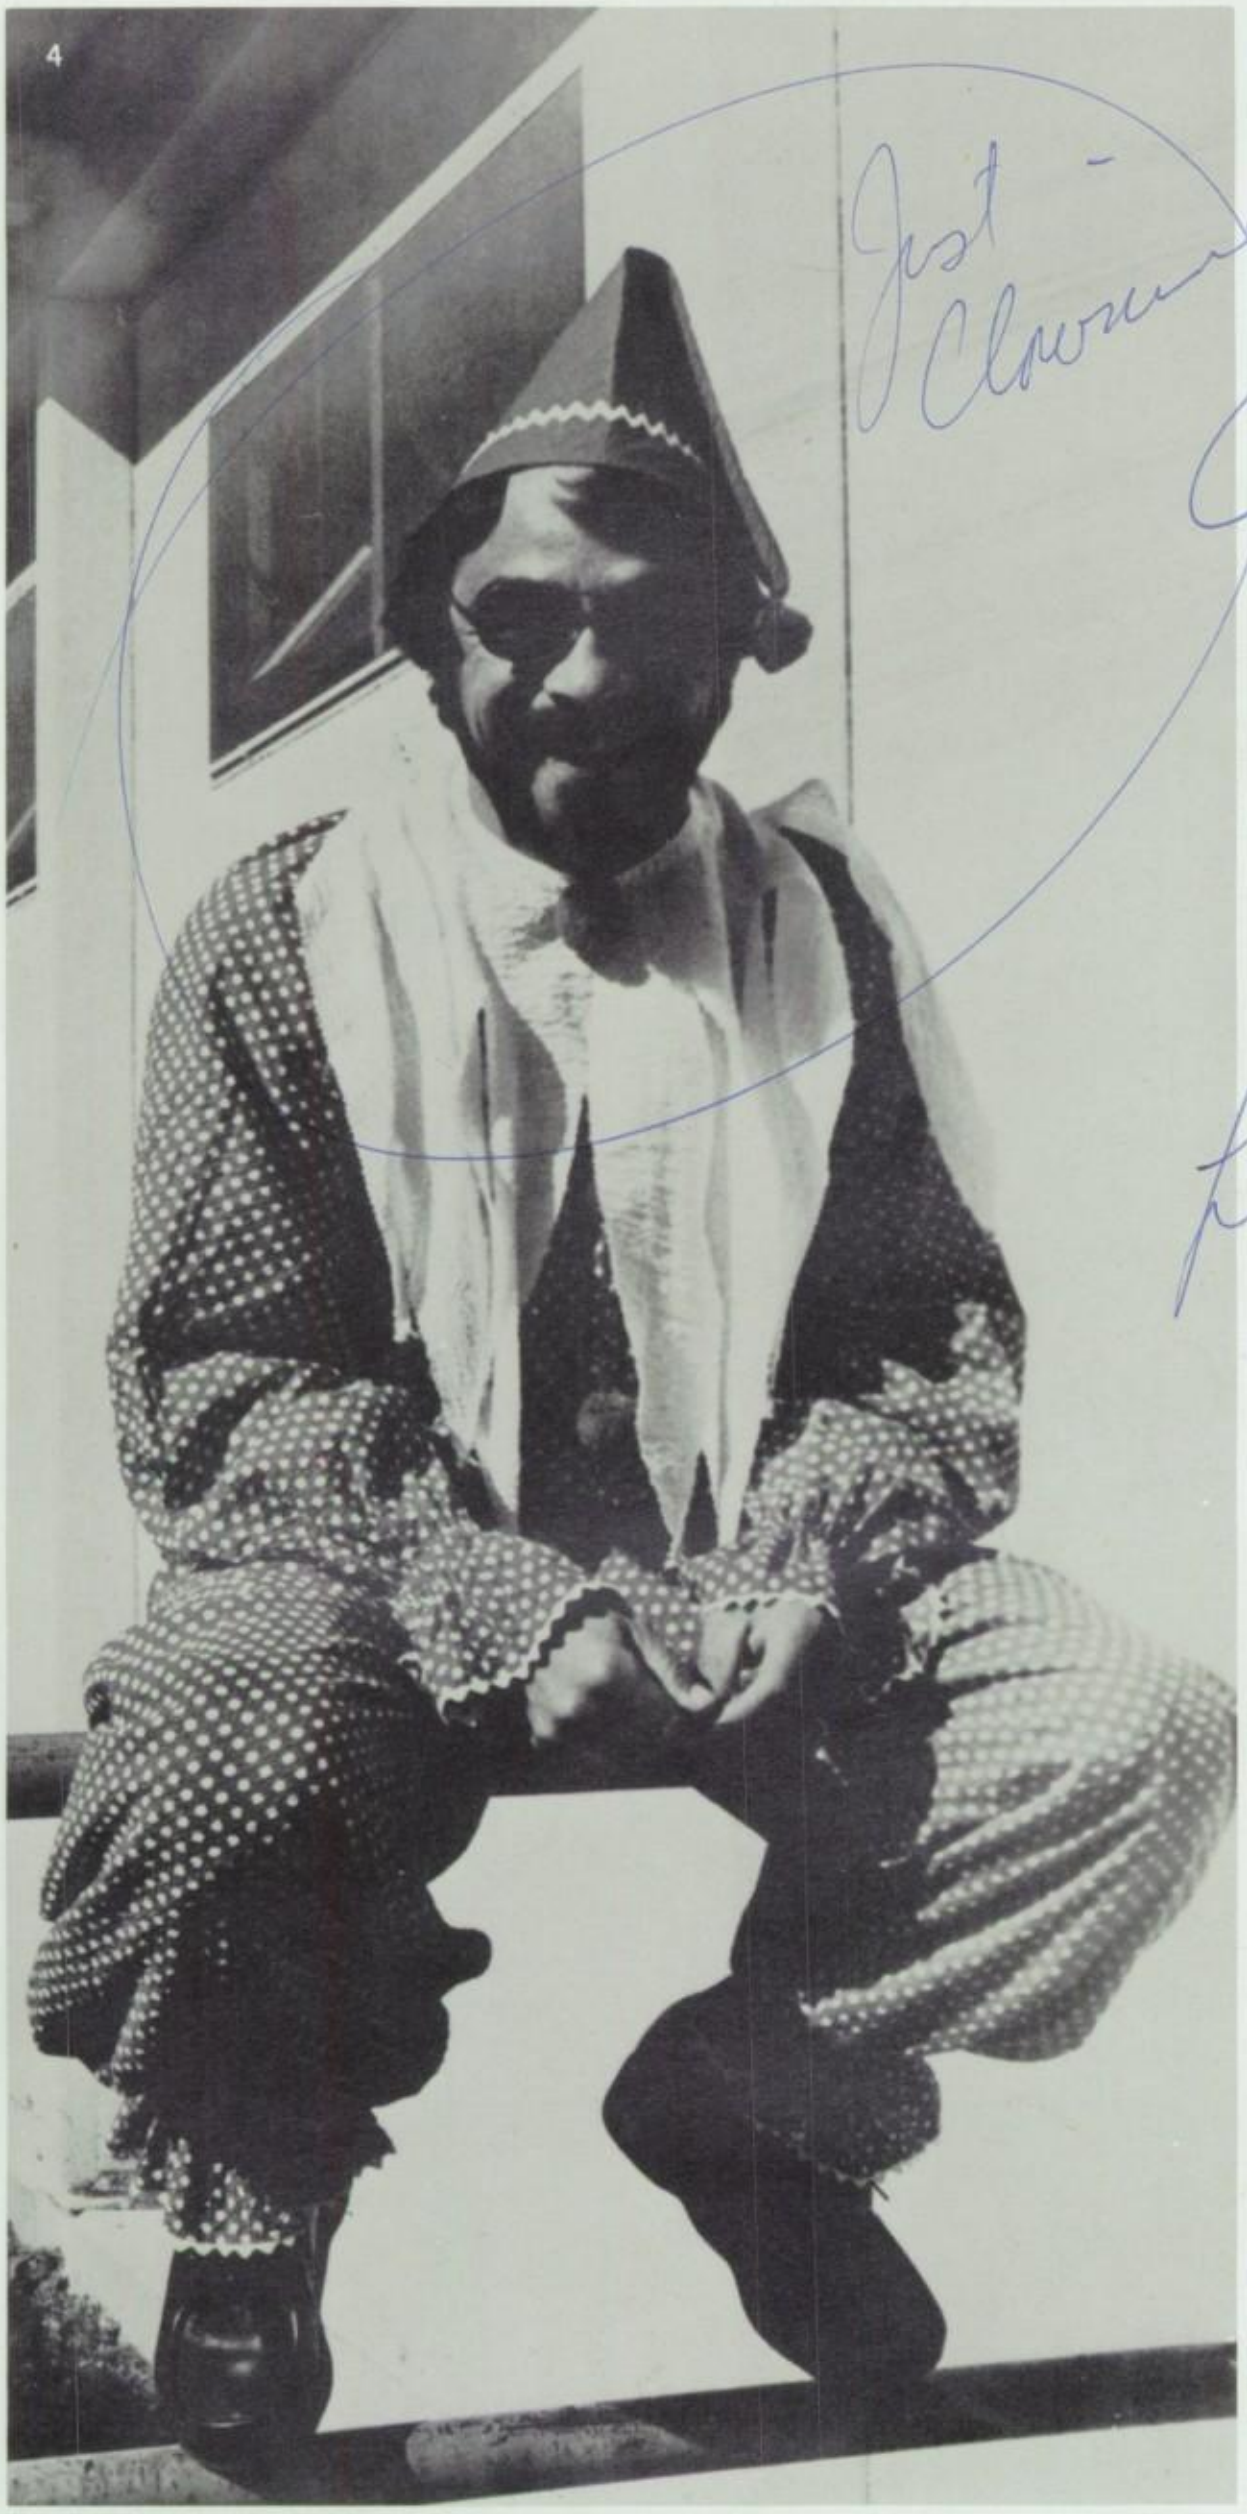
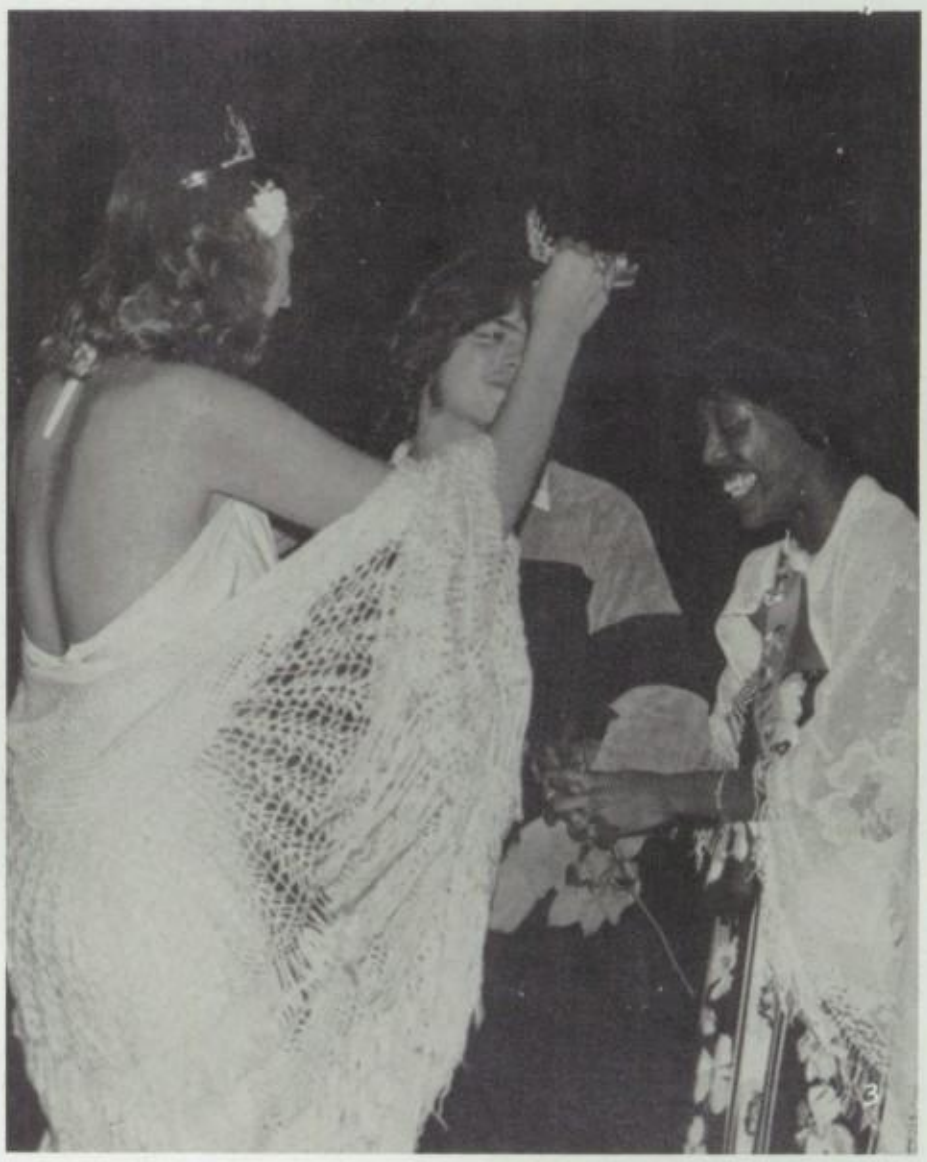
3. Alisal spiritleaders reveal their true identities.
4. Mr. Espinoza clowns around between classes.





Trojans Snatchers Invade Alisal

Halloween crept over Alisal High. Its eerie feeling left many students as well as the faculty dressed especially for the occasion. The exciting costumes of ghosts, goblins, and other creeping creatures revealed the true personalities of the faculty and students of Alisal High. At the end of the bewitching school day, the costumed students could not wait for the sun to set so they could enjoy the upcoming evening's tricks and treats.



ALISAL

Trojan Victory Follows Spirit Explosion

As halftime approached, the football stadium was filled with cheers and excitement. The band and class floats began with Liza Martinez arrival in the winning float. Other class floats proudly carried their princesses with sophomore Linda Barragan, junior, Marie Bachicha, and queen candidates, seniors, Alder Simon, Valerie Fort, Patricia Estrella, Diane Cury, and Lani Canete. As the red carpet was rolled out, the crowd began to cheer as last year's queen, Lynda Rogers, came forth to present the crown to this year's queen. The crowd hushed as the announcer's voice boomed out "Alder Simon" as Alisal's new Homecoming Queen for 1979. As halftime concluded, the varsity players completed their rout of Watsonville with a 24-22 victory.

1. The 1979 Football Homecoming Court.
2. Alder "Ticka" Simon, the 1979 Football Homecoming Queen.
3. Lynda Rogers, outgoing queen, crowns Ticka.

The Alisal Green Machine finally destroyed its 22 game losing streak as it came out victorious in a nerve-wracking win over the Watsonville Wildcats. The screaming crowd cheered the Trojans as the varsity team responded with an all-out effort to send a winless Watsonville High team packing for home. Head-Coach Gary Mortenson exalted in his team finally showing its true potential in his last game as coach, while coaches John Favero and Albert Mazzuca beamed their approval at all the players. Close games plagued Alisal during the season as Joe Mazzuca threw rifle-shot passes to his favorite receivers, Hector Ramirez and Manuel Ceja, but the odds always seemed to disfavor Alisal when even the referees joined in to edge out a Monterey defeat. Mark Amiya won the coveted Golden Helmet award and a place on the second MBL All-League team along with Albert Salazar, Greg Nance and Mark Hotsko. Reaping the highest honor was Jesus Guerra who was the only junior in the league selected for the MBL First All-League team.

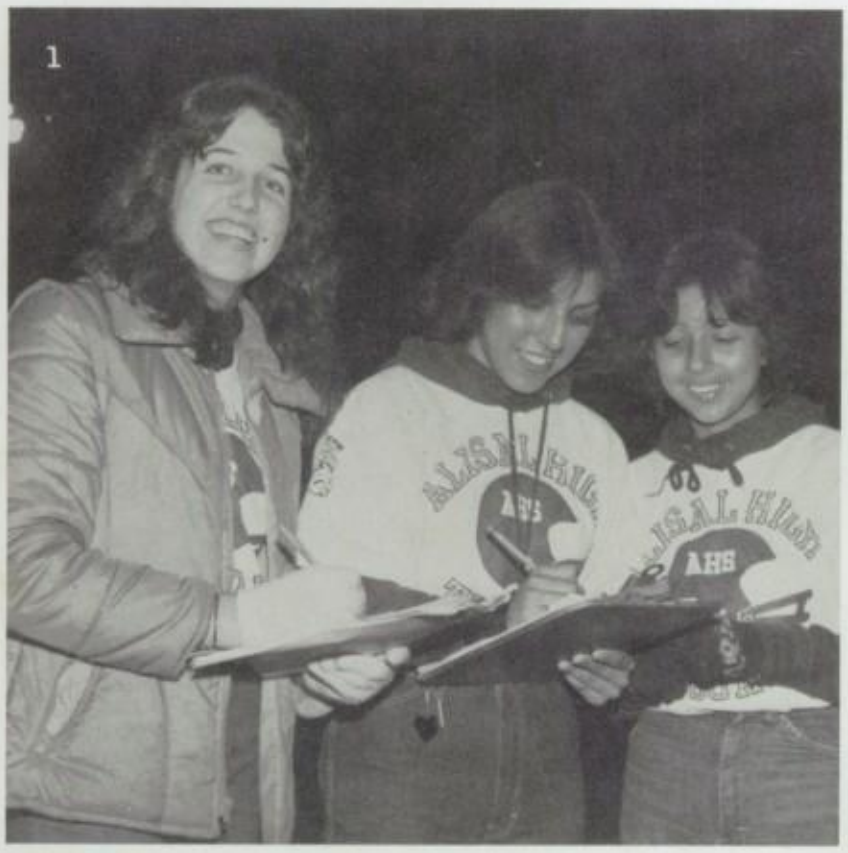
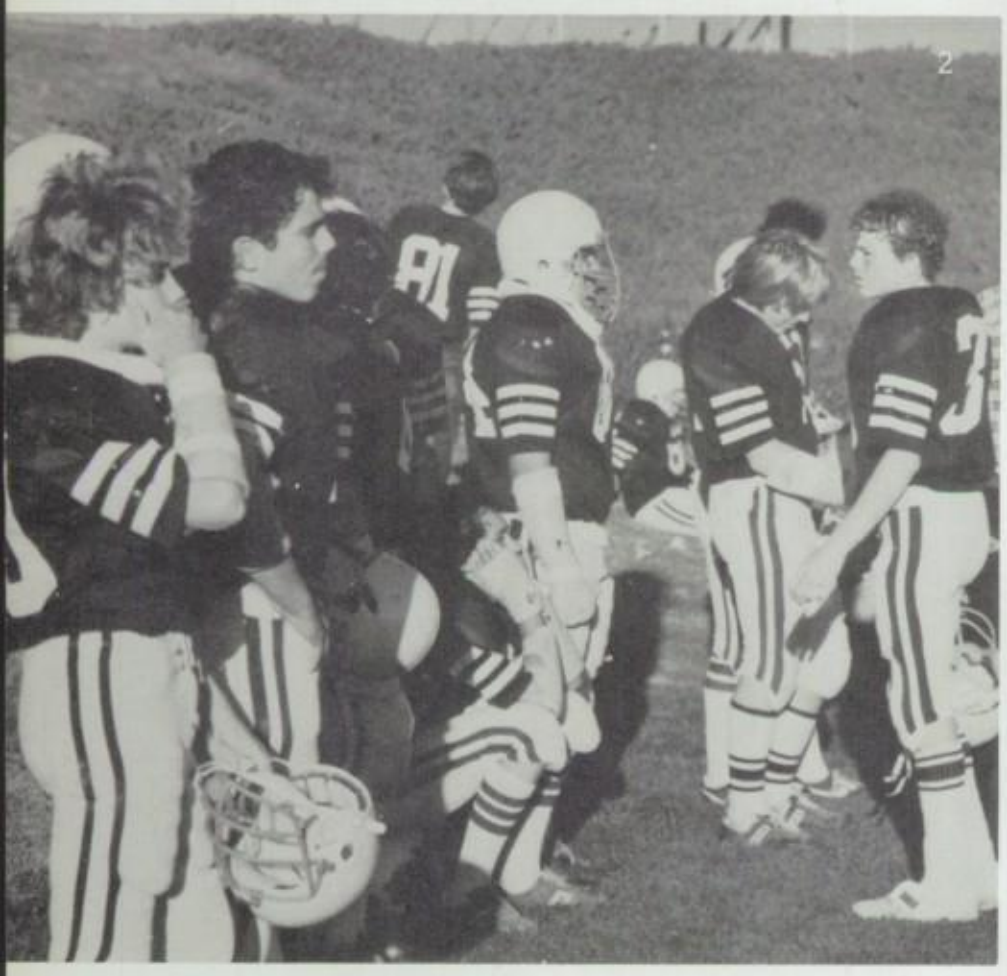
Junior Varsity Rebuilds For Future





The Alisal junior varsity football team never seemed to get off the ground. Coached by John Romero and Dave Larison, the discouraged group gained great experience as it was given lessons in the tactful game of football. Showing great aggressiveness on the field however were Richard Uto who scrambled for yardage as John Tashiro tried to get his offensive unit in gear. Bill Roseli provided thrilling moments in the backfield but the defensive squad had its own share of excitement as Toku Kamimura would break through opposing ranks for the sack and Rick Martinez and Adam Zubiate demonstrated their bone-breaking tackles trying to regain the ball. It was a disappointing but also a rebuilding season as the Alisal junior varsity team expanded its football knowledge for next year.

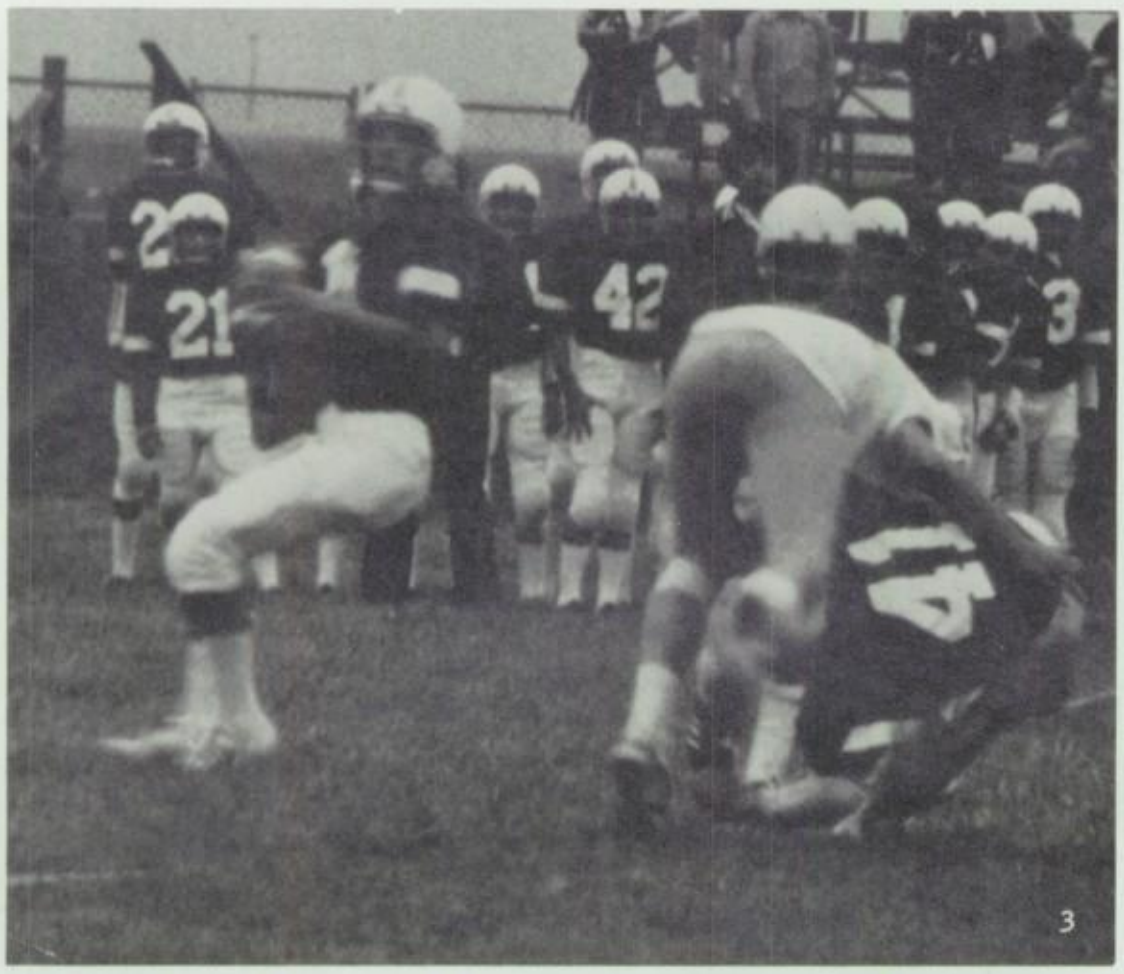
Frosh-Soph Impressive In League Play



1. A Trojan runningback sprints to the right for extra yardage.
2. Danny Hernandez gives chase to a Wildcat.
3. The Frosh-Soph team watch quarterback Bernie Zubiate get set to pass.
4. The Frosh-Soph defense lines up before swarming over the opposition.

The ball whizzed through the air as Bernie Zubiate quickly connected to Jerome Grant for six points. Alisal's frosh-soph football team showed great promise for years to come as it ended its season with a romp over Watsonville. Adding to the excitement was Mike Chavez as he ran the ball on sweeps for thrilling first downs. Head-Coach Reyes and Coach Davidson called the winning plays from the sidelines as Jeff Kalstrom and Henry Uchida devastated the opposing offense. Confident with their success on the field, one frosh-soph gridder was overheard to exclaim happily, "We're gonna kick next year!"

When he took our Cross country
Pictures at Toro park.
Have a great summer
Vacation and lots of luck in the future.
Your Friend
Gerardo Barrera

P.S. See you next year.

Seeking to revitalize cross crountry, the Alisal harriers failed to let their small size stop them. Working out daily in grueling 3 to 7 mile workouts, the cross country team managed to improve an impressive overall average of 5 minutes on their 3-mile course times. Coach Tom Bailey praised the hard efforts put out by all his runners but especially cited the performances by Miguel Cano and Jesse Medina as outstanding. His only concern was that the lack of team members severely cut short any chance of his team ever winning a dual meet because of the 5-man-team scoring system. The only runner not returning next year will be veteran Dennis Lee. Runners returning next year as seniors, Miguel Cano, Jesse Medina and Jeff Hargrave all hope to make Alisal High a powerhouse in the MBL.

Girls' Tennis Rallies Through Another Season

White uniforms bobbed up and down along the courts as the Alisal Tennis Team swatted the yellow balls with blistering swings of their rackets. Sharp thuds echoed through the air as Jackie Edwards and Theresa Agpaoa thundered blazing forehands to their cowering opponents. Florence Camany, the girls' tennis coach, was more than happy with the performances of her determined group. The '79 season proved to be a satisfying one as the girls, although winning very few matches, enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Barbara Calanche, Yoshie Shinhira and Judy Amiya will be some of the returning players next year but Coach Camany hopes for more participation in the future.

Back row-Sheila Tabios, Lisa Castillo, Charlene Armstrong, Barbara Calanche, Florence Camany, Eladia Sandoval, Felicia Forcey, Debbie Ortiz, Judy Amiya; Front row-Tammy Lau, Cindy Aquino, Theresa Agpaoa, Jackie Edwards, Linda Martinez, Yoshi Shinhira, June Yee

1. Jackie Edwards rips across a screaming backhand.
2. Theresa Agpaoa grimly lobs back the ball to her opponent.
3. Talented Jackie Edwards again unleashes another well-hit ball.

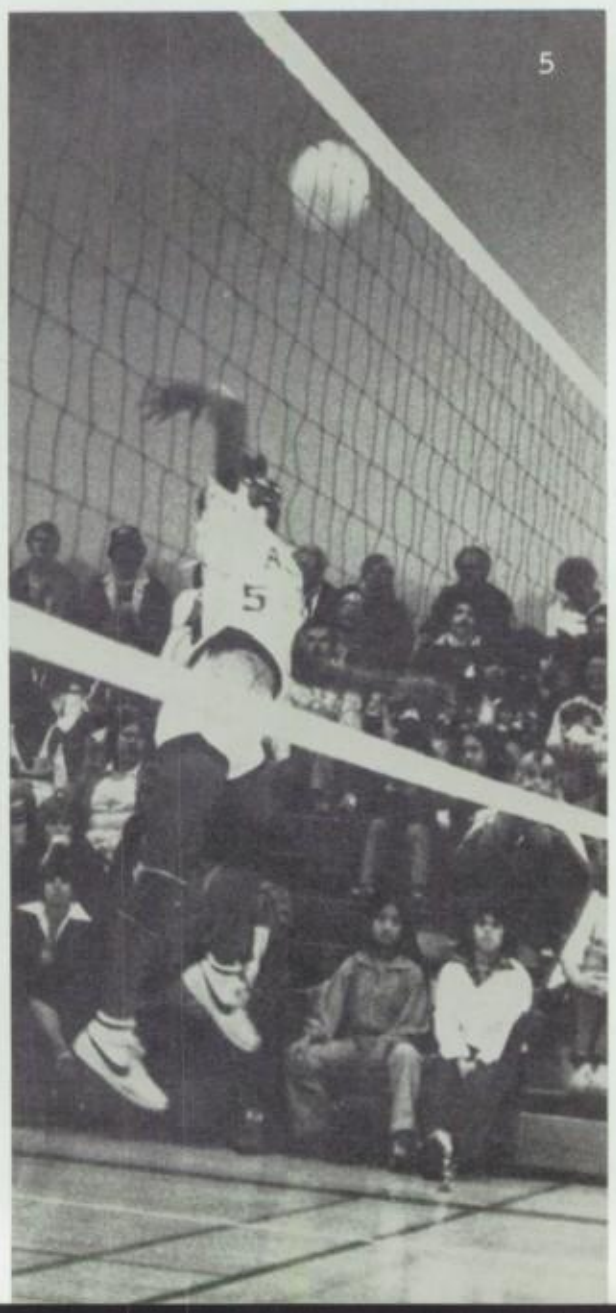
Back row-K. Sullivan, E. Jimenez, Coach K. Mortenson; Top row-I. Uchida, T. Simon, D. Patton; Middle row-S. Kuchta, J. Tashiro; Bottom row-T. Gonzales, K. Wilson.

1. Denna Patton rockets a spike down the throats of the Vikings.
2. Toni Gonzales watches as Susie Kuchta softly sets up the ball.
3. Ticka Simon soars upward to deliver an awesome smash to the ball.
4. Julia Tashiro eyes a well positioned ball.
5. Another bullet is let loose by Ticka Simon.

Varsity Volleyball Powerhouses To Success

The crowd cheered and yelled its enthusiasm while the Alisal varsity volleyball team displayed its many talents. Streaking bullet-like serves across the net was Denna Patton as Julia Tashiro would hang them high in mid-air as the ferocious Ticka Simon smashed them down in white blurs at the retreating players. Susy Kuchta amazed the crowds as they "oohed" and "ahhed" their approval and Coach Kayleen Mortenson jumped up and down in ecstasy as her team captured first place in the Alisal Invitational Tournament. It wasn't all easy however as Monterey High managed to secure the MBL crown in very close games. Undaunted, the spirited volleyball squad avenged themselves by trouncing the Monterey team in Regionals to prove who was really Number One.



Row 1-J. Flores, R. Manaois, K. Lesney, J. Fisher, asst. A. Hancock, A. Jimenez, Coach A. Siaz, Row 2-M. Shido, D. Nunez, M. Onitsuka, M. Torres, D. Soriano, M. Guerra, Row 3-N. Brown, I. Magdaleno, J. Aguila, Row 4-S. Torres, R. Macuno, K. Kalstrom.

1. Mari Shido reaches high for the smash as Diane, Nancy and Idalia look on hopefully.
2. Mary Onitsuka serves for the Trojanettes.
3. The J.V. volleyball team gets ready for action.
4. The ball is put into action with a well-timed hit by Mari Shido.
5. Setting up the ball is one of Mari Shido's specialties.

J.V. Sets Up A Satisfying Season

Gritting their teeth and fighting all the way, Alisal's junior varsity volleyball team tried to serve, set and smash its way into the league's number one spot. Ranelle Manaois led the serving onslaught while Mari Shido and Idalia Magdaleno set up the spikes for Nancy Brown. The junior varsity team was a top contender in the MBL but faced defeat against its crosstown rival, North Salinas. Former Alisal volleyball player, Anna Siaz, coached the team and praised all her players for their continuous aggressiveness on the court.

Alisal Mermaids Take The Plunge

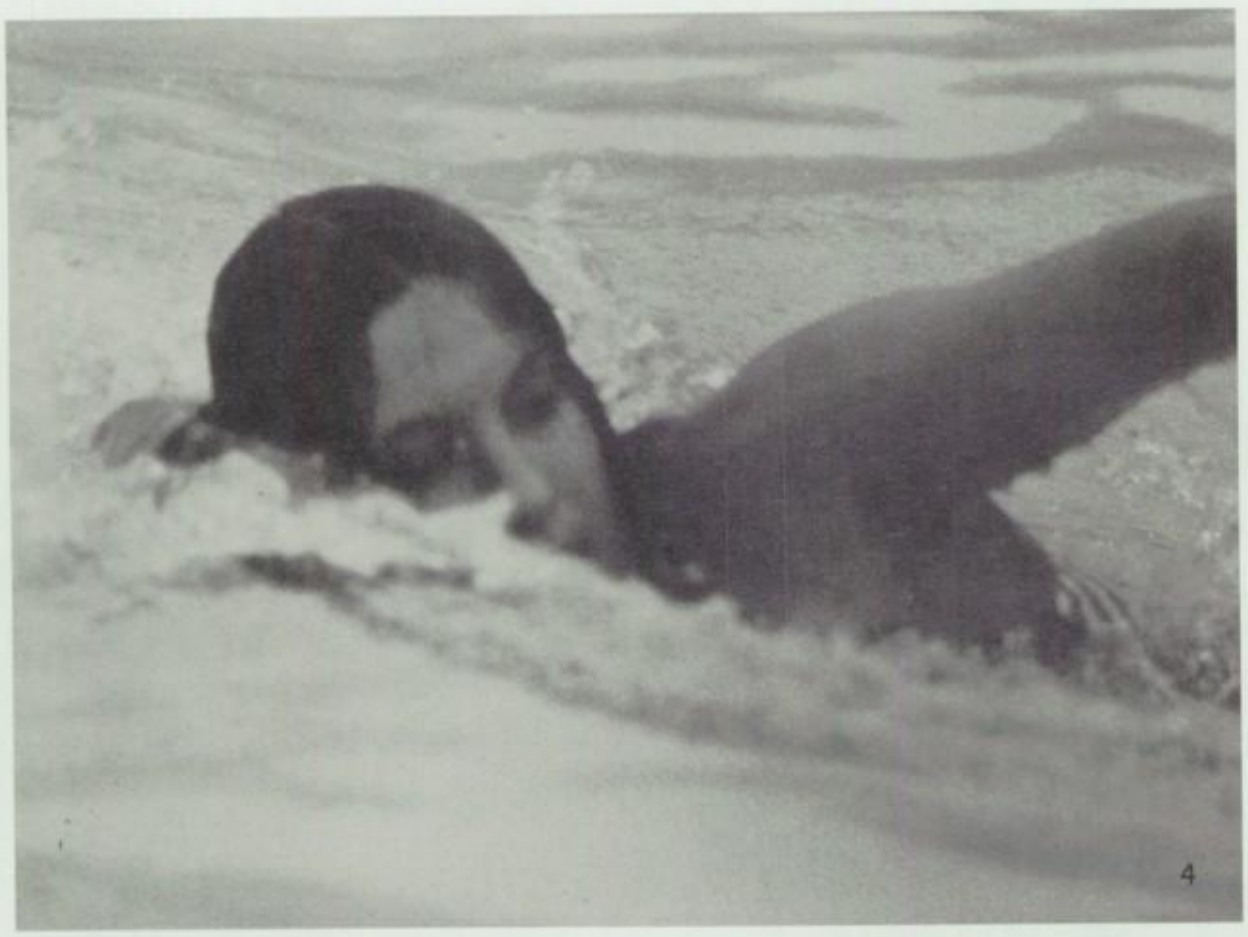
The Alisal girls' swim team was small but sparkling with talent as it splashed its way to perfection. Coached by Connie Abbeglen, the girls sliced back and forth through the chilling water as they performed the rigorous training demanded. Not a dominant threat in the MBL, the Alisal swimmers had outstanding talent in Carol Whitmire and Kim Powers as they performed exceptionally well in their events. Other Mermaids who made swim meets a treat to watch were Lisa Bush, Tina Littlejohn, Virginia Robinson, Joy Fleeger, Diana Stowers and Angela Ramirez.



1. "Practice makes perfect" as the swim team works on its entries.
2. Doing the butterfly with ease is Angela Ramirez.
3. Virginia Robinson treads through the water.
4. Angela Ramirez splashes her way to the finish.
5. Swim team: (left to right) Diana Stowers, Angela Ramirez, Virginia Robinson, Lisa Bush, Carol Whitmire, Tina Littlejohn, Joy Fleeger, Kim Powers, Coach-Connie Abbeglen.

The Proud Crowd Rallies After Homecoming Defeat

The mighty class of 81 was the patron of this year's Junior-Senior Prom. In order to subsidize this grand affair, the enthusiatic company of juniors held various money-making activities.

The class was led by animated Adam Hancock, president, who could always be counted on to be late. Lively Lisa Navalta, vice-president, was in charge of giving lectures to the nonchalant juniors. Bubbly Barbara Calanche, treasurer, was always bursting with energy, and last but not least exhilarating Esther Jimenez, secretary, who always kept tabs on every single penny that came into her hands. When it came to class competition, the juniors showed the underclassmen who had the most spirit and most pride. However they suffered a depressing defeat during the 1979 Homecoming float competition losing a highly contested title to a perhaps less deserving freshman class. All in all this proved to be the busiest year yet for the Proud Crowd of 81. The junior class was advised by nifty Nancy Bainter and perky Pam Frees.

Shining Class of "82" Struggles With Apathy

When it came to class competition, the sophomores showed the freshmen they were not to be messed with. The semi-successful efforts of the class were due to the outgoing sophomore officers who struggled to keep the clan spirit high.

President Nancy Brown was responsible for all the nifty fundraisers though few and far between. Rowdy Randy Quebec, vice-pres. was known for getting everybody to work except himself, of course. Dreamy, Dorine Nunez, secretary always knew just what to do at exactly the wrong time. Jiffy John Tashiro, treasurer managed to collect and spend all the money in a jiffy.

This motivated group was given advice by their advisors Paul McCarroll and John Romero.

Block A Stacks Up Great Year

Bringing together Alisal's most elite athletes, Mrs. Florence Camany led these young energetic women with her help and dedication helping the Block A Club partake in many of the school's activities. Along with participating in various sports, they sold Block A sweaters which helped many of the club's sponsored events and financed numerous other trips including their annual trip to the Santa Cruz Boardwalk.

SGA Twirps Dream-Man

The Students for Girls' Athletics had another year of funfilled activities. Besides their participation in sports, they helped to earn money by selling flower and Christmas grams. President Theresa Agpaoa, vice-president, Ticka Simon, secretary, Renee Ronda, and treasurer, Tina Hester, along with June Yee, commissioner of publicity and Charlene Armstrong, custodian of records, once again provided our school with the spirited Twirp Week ending with the crowning of Dream Man of Alisal at the S.G.A. sponsored Twirp Dance. Guided by Mrs. Florence Camany, these members held their first Skate-a-Thon which helped to make this year another success.

FSA Dictates Business World

"Miss Aguilera could you please come in and do some dictation?" Frantically she grabbed for her notepad; the buzzer rang again . . . Now she was in for it! This was her first day on the job. As she rushed into his office, she almost fell. Too afraid to say anything, she made it to the chair. "Miss Aguilera, I've been meaning to talk to you," said her boss. As she sat half-scared to death even to talk, she tried to remember what it was supposed to be like from what she had learned in the Future Secretaries Association in high school. She remembered all that her advisor, Odell Kirchner, had told her, but at this moment nothing could come to mind. Sitting there half-daydreaming, she heard him say, "Miss Aguilera are you alright?" Realizing that she was daydreaming, her boss called it a day. Though becoming a secretary takes time and dedication, the members of the Alisal chapter of FSA were able to prepare themselves for a career in the business world. Providing their services in this year's club were president, Liz Aguilera, vice-president, Mona Lee, secretary, Terri Holbrook, and corresponding-secretary, Edna Tarewater.

Agriculturalists Achieve Ambitions

Future Farmers of America not only learned the fine skills of the agricultural field but also sponsored the King and Queen of Hearts Dance, their traditional fund raiser. With the guidance of this year's new FFA advisor, Mr. Kiely, students learned techniques useful in judging horses and produce at various contests. President, Sandi Leonard, vice-president, Regina Bronson, secretary, Lupita Olivares, and treasurer, Jamie Ellis were the leaders behind this inspiring group. Giving a Christmas party for the children at Bard Blades school was also another memorable activity for FFA members.

2. M.A.Y.O. Club

Mayo Club

The Mexican American Youth Organization led by Berna Maya once again launched another successful year. Providing added activities and fund raisers, the Mayo Club held car shows and movies during lunch which proved to be successful in bringing many of Alisal's cultures together. Guided by principal, John Braddock, this energetic group of members had another successful year.

1. Statisticians

Ilios Club

Like some forgotten gladiators one on one, two wrestlers paired off at the beginning of the match. There would be only one winner. With strength and quick coordination, these two would wrestle to prove the mightest of the two. Once again a contender to the MBL powerhouse, the Alisal wrestlers upheld their constant threat to the league. Led by Mr. Terry Espinoza, the Ilios Club once again held the Alisal Invitational along with the annual Wrestling Homecoming. Providing their constant charm, this year's statisticians and matmaids helped to enlighten every home and away meet.

AFS Exchanges Cultures

As they rushed toward the boarding gate, they heard the announcement, "Flight 1980 now arriving from Connecticut." Relieved that their plane had arrived safely, advisor Donna Van Noy and her American Field Service members were all waiting as their domestic exchange student from Connecticut arrived. Bonnie Gray will be a representative from within the United States. With Elvira Arias from Salinas representating Alisal High in Brazil, the Alisal Chapter remained active with president, Adam Hancock, secretary, Ed Hernandez and treasurer, Diane Soriano putting an active part of their lives in exchanging cultures with others.

Fleur-de-Lis Flourishes

The waiter smiled as he placed the food on the table. President Rosana Torres was the first to help herself to all the varied French delicacies while thinking back to the past summer she had spent in France with Leticia Romero, Sheila Hernandez, and Mrs. Bainter. Madeleine Mau, secretary, squealed with delight as she took a bite of "crepes a-la-chicken." Other members of the French Club looked on in disbelief as they saw Bruno Miramontez stuff all twenty escargots in his mouth and swallow all of them while drinking a glass of water. Sheila Hernandez, treasurer, complimented their advisor, Nancy Bainter, on planning and organizing the much publicized gala event. Throughout the meal, vice-president Leticia Romero was seen reading her handy dandy guide book, "How to Visit France in Less Than 10 Days." The festivities continued as the members discussed their upcoming activities such as Mardi Gras, the slide show, and their future trip to Europe. To finance these activities the hard working members sold everything from hot dogs to stationery. The evening slowed to a halt as Bruno announced that he felt sick.

As I walked slowly ahead with my date, I began to feel the surge of excitement enter my mind. As the sweat trickled down my forehead, I began to think about what was going to happen in the time to come. As she clamped on to my sweaty hand I felt my heart thumping. Slowly as we approached our destination in the cold winds of winter, I heard the whispering voice of her say, "Let's do it!" We entered the gym and were escorted to our tables. The lights and ornaments helped create the Christmas atmosphere. The music helped take away all the tensions locked inside me. The leader's voice of the New Chameleon put the rest of the couples into the mood. This evening was just the beginning of the Christmas Ball sponsored by the senior class. When the evening had ended we left with a smile knowing we had fulfilled our fantasy.

Spirit, Victory, and Beauty Sparkle Trojan Homecoming

Following a very spirited and exciting Alisal win over Watsonville, Teresa Gandy was crowned 1980 Basketball Homecoming Queen by former queen Janet Chisum! Other candidates nominated by the varsity basketball team included Valerie Fort, Kami VonBehren, and Lani Canete. Also nominated were the class princesses who included junior, Tina Littlejohn, escorted by Ed Dolan, sophomore, Virginia Fletes, escorted by Ray Bartlett, and freshman, Eva Garcia, escorted by Ray Perez. Following the crowning of the queen, the 1980 Basketball Homecoming Court and their dates enjoyed a slow dance to "A Special Lady." Later many students rocked to the beat of Bubba G. Scotch at the Homecoming Dance. All in all the 1980 Basketball Homecoming was a success.

Patricia Estrella Reigns as 1980 Wrestling Homecoming Queen.

As silence fell over the gym, the audience listened in suspense as Coach Terry Espinoza announced the 1980 Wrestling Homecoming Queen. "The 1980 Homecoming Queen is . . . Patricia Estrella!" Jubilation and applause echoed throughout the gym as a happy Patricia Estrella received the congratulations from the other candidates, Theresa Agpaoa, Lani Canete and Beatriz Beltran. After the crown had been placed on her head, Patricia walked to her awaiting throne with her arms full of roses and received adulation from class princesses, Barbara Calanche, Linda Martinez, and Lydia Villa.

Trojan Hopes Snuffed In League Play

David Perez shredded the nets as the Alisal varsity basketball team opened eyes all over the MBL. Routing teams from different leagues, the squad shocked opponents with their impressive pre-season wins. Confident of their many skills, the Trojans entered the MBL season with two straight victories. "Dr. Ray" Perez handled the ball with a touch of magic as Joe Mazzuca skied for the rebounds. James "Peanuts" Robinson improved greatly and Gus Martinez consistently helped the team with his aggressive play. The jinx was on though as Coach Haddan frustratingly watched his team slide slowly to a 5-game losing streak. Struggling to regain confidence, the Trojans kept their hopes alive by upsetting Monterey in a hard fought match with David Perez netting an awesome 31 points.

1. The Trojans take a well-deserved break while Coach Cork Haddan outlines their next line of attack. Standing on coach's left is Hector Ramirez who has saved the team from foul trouble by playing brilliantly off the bench in place of Ray Perez, Joe Mazzuca, and Gus Martinez.
2. Gus Martinez, another outstanding player, dribbles downcourt with his usual aggressiveness.
3. James "Peanuts" Robinson received a well-aimed pass and left the Monterey players on the ground as he lofted up an easy basket.
4. Using his high leap to control the jump, Peanuts prefers demonstrating his reach by dunking the ball.
5. David Perez lets loose another of his trademark shots; smooth, graceful and most important, accurate as the opposition stands powerless to stop him.

Back: M. Ruiz, M. Pablo, J. Pereira, G. Dillard, A. Zubiate, M. Degnan, K. Haley, D. Kinger, P. Valdez, Coach R. Lasoya. Front: A. Castaway, B. Asuncion, A. Nicanor, R. Uto, A. Fernando, D. Saucedo, BB: P. Nava, R. Lasoya.

J.V. Trojans Improve Through Season

Miguel Guzman's quick move and swift pass enabled David Saucedo to easily loft in another 15 foot shot. The defense toughened up with a wicked snuff from Mike Ruiz as Arni Nicanor's swift hands stole the loose ball and went ravaging downcourt for the uncontested lay-up. First year coach, Rick Lasoya, yelled his approval from the sideline, winning several tough league games as his impressive team put up a good fight in every game they played. With these fine athletes and others, next year's season proves to become a spectacular one for the Alisal Trojans.

1. Arni Nicanor swings to his left while he dribbles the ball to the basket.
2. Donald Kinzer soars upward for a 20-footer.
3. Arni Nicanor shoots for two.
4. Miguel Guzman gets bumped as he puts up a sure two points.
5. Richard Uto speeds by with the ball in control.

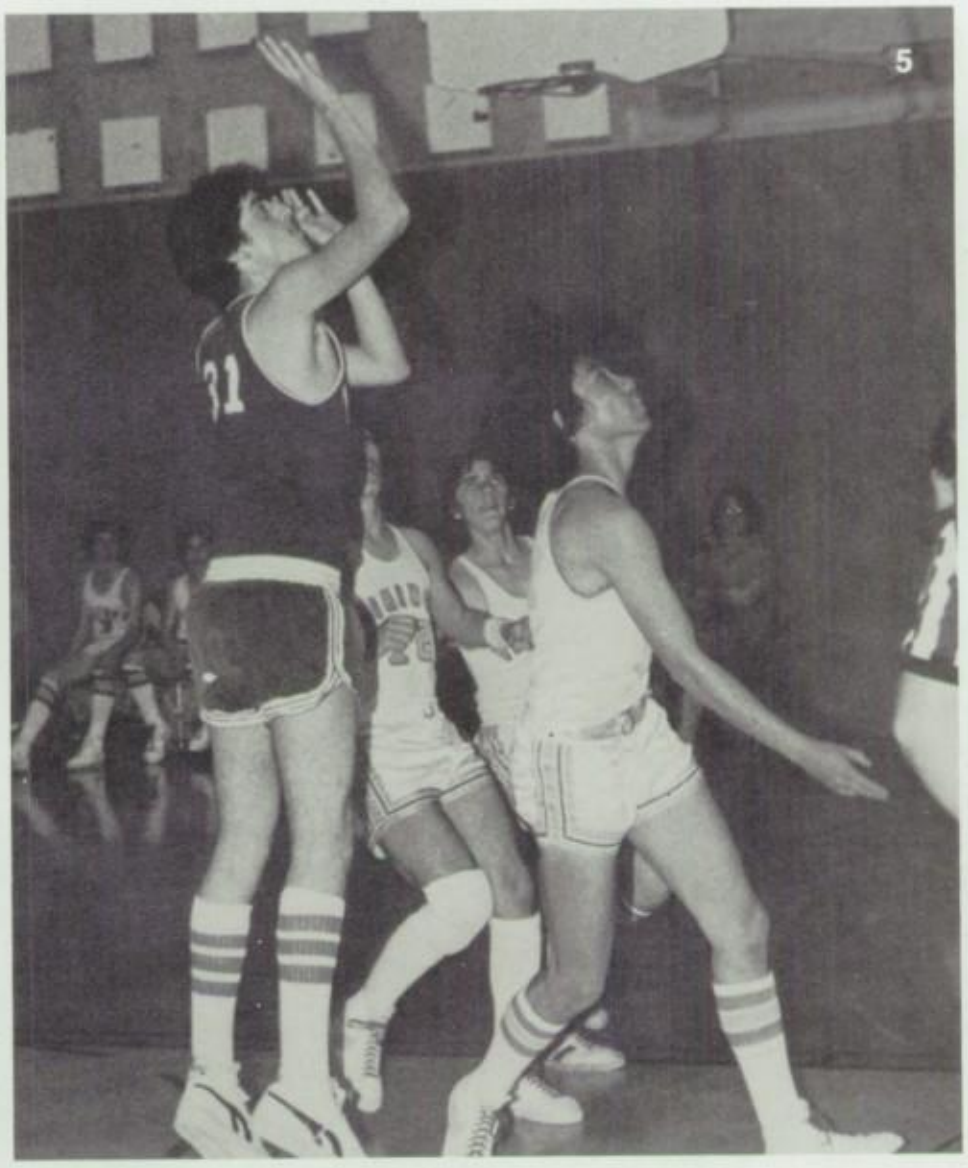
Frosh-Soph Glitters with Talent

Back: R. Jones, L. Lovett, G. Grant, J. Amaro, G. Garibay, Coach-D. Vivilo. Middle: M. Sanchez, J. Kohara, A. Becerra, D. Mau, D. Carillo.
Front: R. Burrel, E. Saucedo, J. Grant, D. Denny.

Head Coach David Vivilo shouted approval as his starting team of freshmen worked together efficiently to dazzle its opponents. Zipping basketballs through the nets were Gilbert Garibay and Gerome Grant as the fast hands of Eddie Saucedo and Jose Amaro snatched basketballs from the offense and went tearing down court for the easy lay-up. Coach Vivilo worked his team hard and was glad to see the hard efforts of Les Lovett, David Denny, John Grant and the rest of his squad pay off as Alisal High's frosh-soph basketball team proved to be one of our best frosh-soph teams ever.



1. David Carrillo controls the ball as he watches for an opening.
2. The frosh-soph Trojans get started with David, John, Gilbert, Les, and Luis.
3. Gilbert Garibay leaps high in an attempt to bring down the ball.
4. Les Lovett breaks to the inside as the Trojans set up a play.
5. Garibay devasted opposing teams with his quick and deadly jump shot.

Varsity Soccer Stands Firmly On Its Feet

"Orale Barreto! Hechate un goal!" were the cries of his teammates as Gilbert Barreto deftly threaded the ball through the opposition and blasted the ball over the outstretched fingers of the goalie. "Ay Barreto!" came the cries again as the Alisal varsity soccer team worked its way to another spectacular win. Coaching his second year of soccer, James Johnson led another successful season with players such as Gilbert Barreto, Adolfo Rangel, Alvaro Barroso and veteran goalie Manuel Ceja. Opposing teams were dazzled by Alisal's fancy footwork and passes and rarely proved to be a match as Alisal's booters proved their number one standing by demonstrating excellent technique and trick plays.

Trojan Grapplers' Hopes Pinned Down

The crowd yelled, "PIN HIM! PIN HIM!" as Juan Villalobos ground his opponent's nose into the mat. The gym filled with screams of delight as Juan threw his man around and forced his shoulders to the mat. The ref threw himself on the floor for a closer look and slapped his hand to the mat signifying a pin as the crowd exploded with cheers. Such was the 1980 season for Coach Terry Espinoza as brilliant wrestlers such as Juan Villalobos, Mario Correa, Danny Villa, and Tom Gifford displayed tremendous bursts of skill in handling their opponents. The Alisal Wrestling Team had a small chance for the MBL title but again gained respect with its all-around toughness.

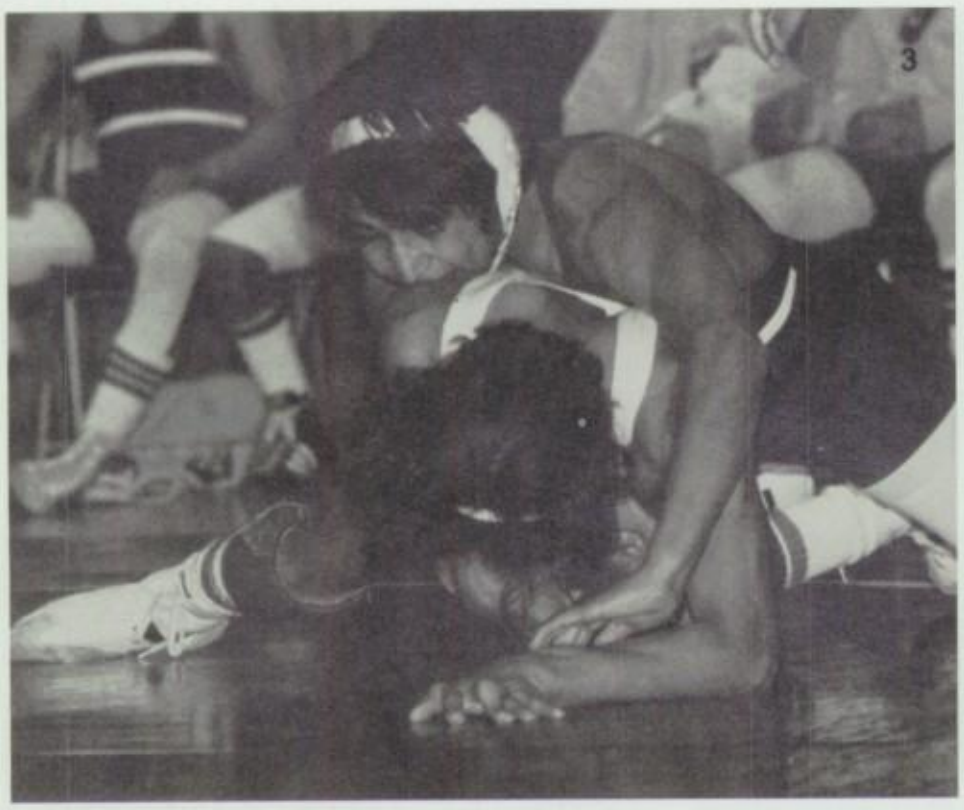
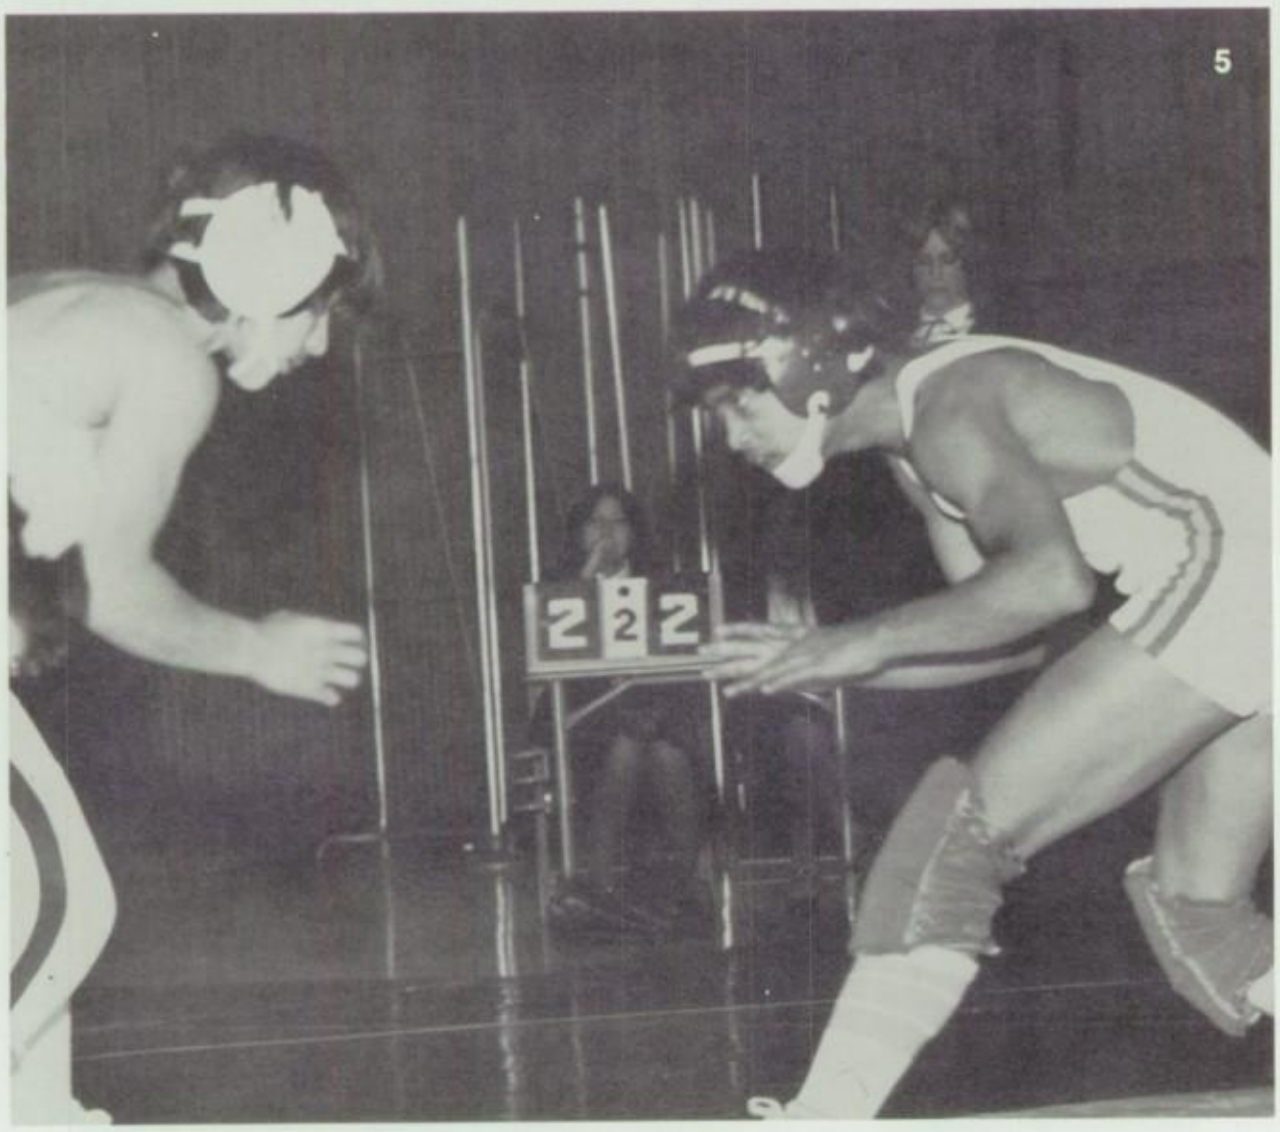
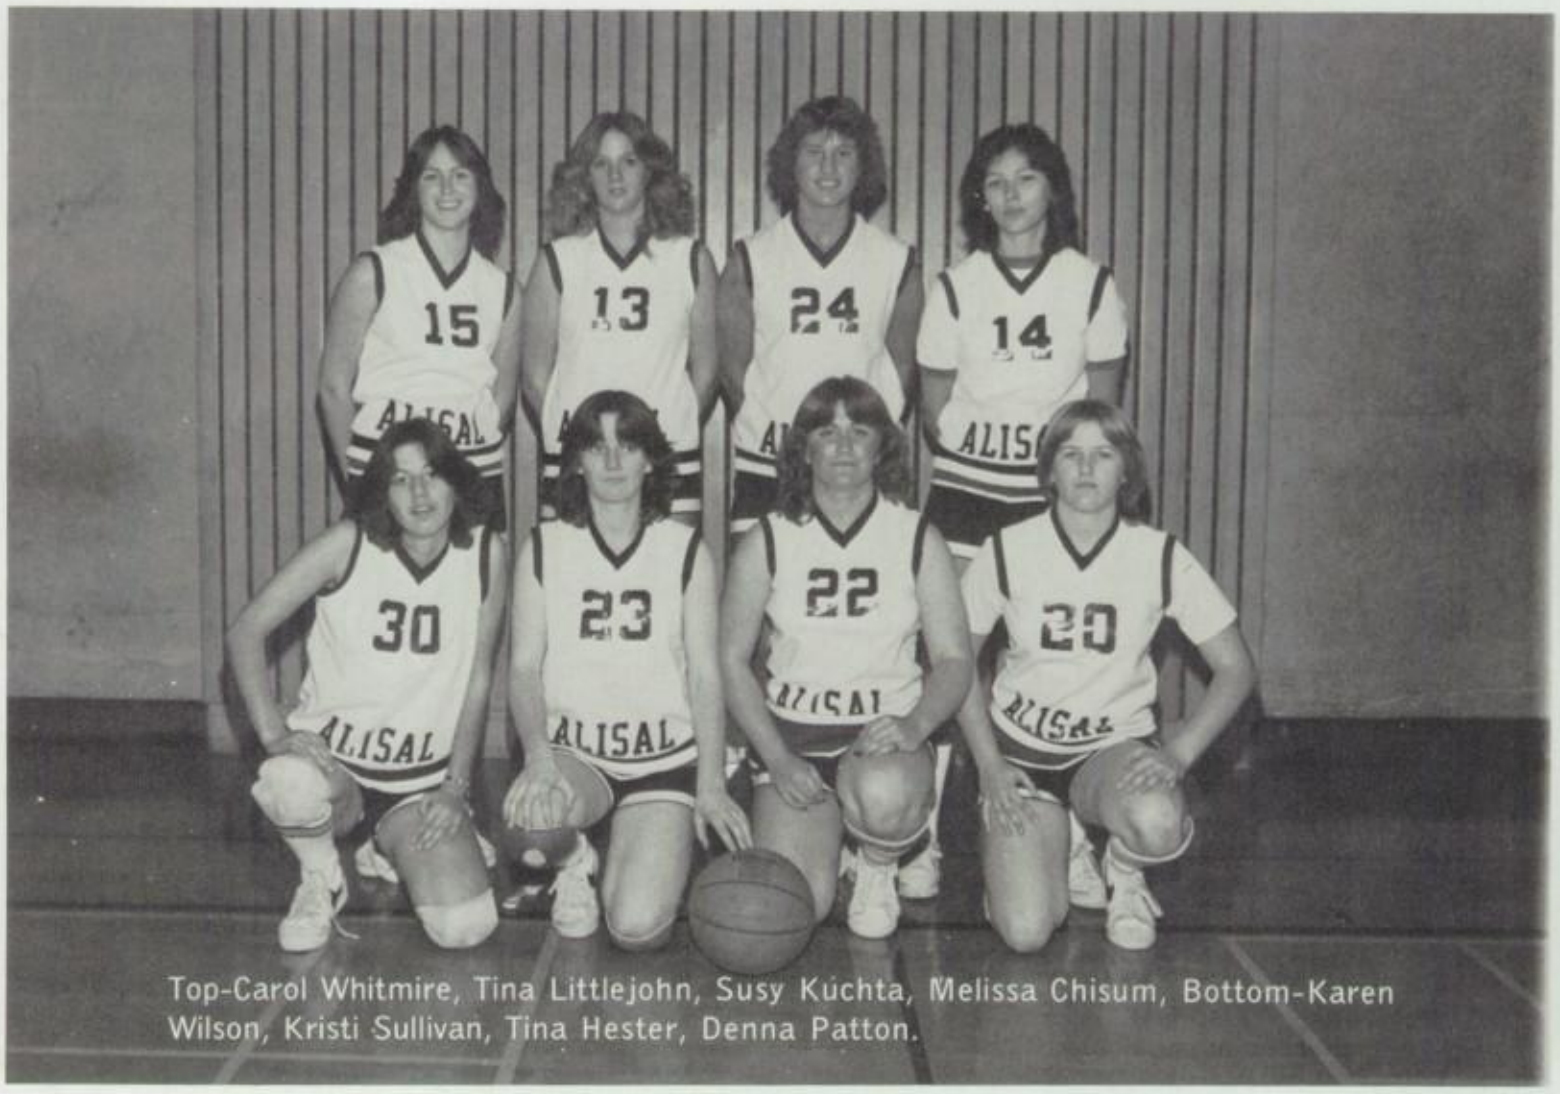
The referee hit the mat as yet another six points appeared on the scoreboard for the impressive but young junior varsity grapplers. This awesome group of athletes was coached by Mike Serna. They captured many honors during the season including first place at the Gilroy Frosh Invitational. Their outstanding overall record was 6-1 losing only once in a closely contested match to North High. The success of the team was a combined effort from such promising wrestlers as: Bernie Zubiate, Marcus Belnas, Andy Huerta, and Art Gonzales. With the addition of these young but experienced grapplers, Alisal's future looks very bright indeed.





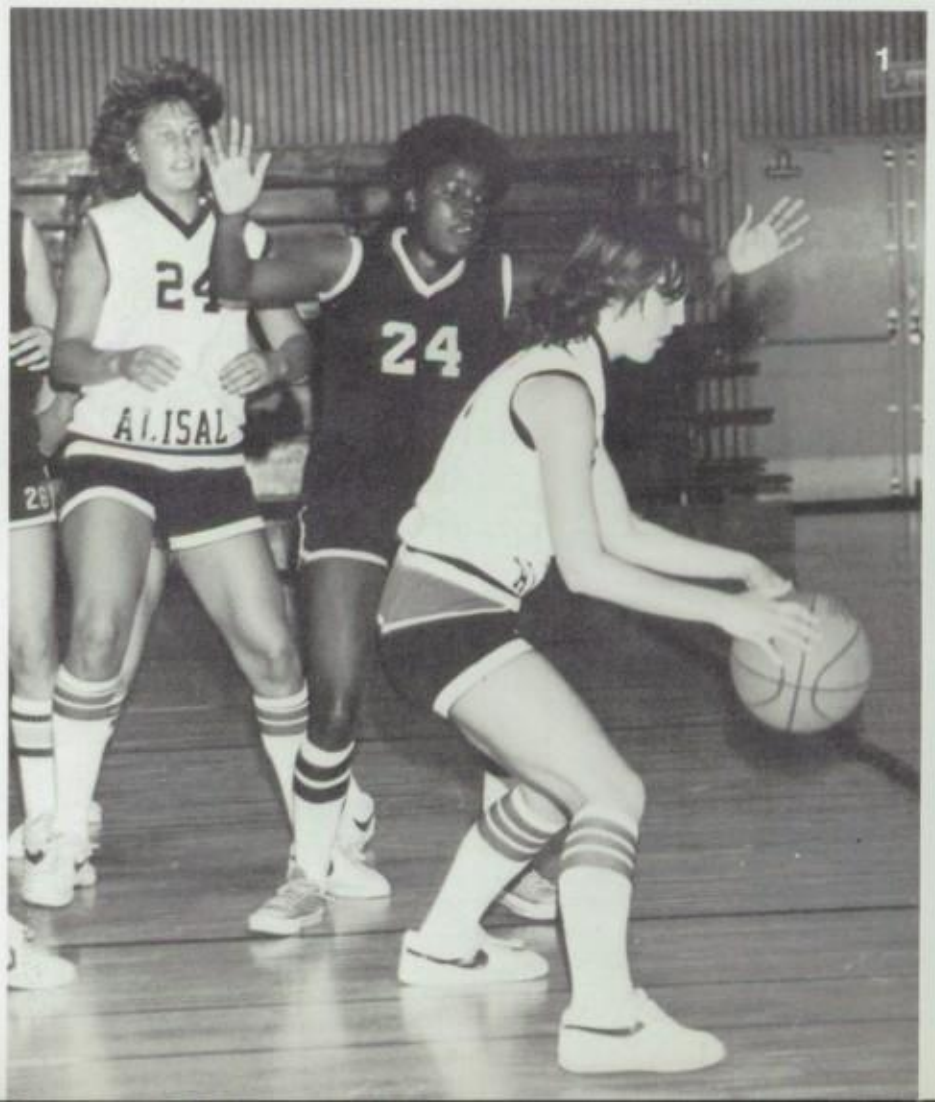
1. Ernie Ocampo gasps for air before gaining extra leverage.
2. Eric Doerner applies pressure against a rival.
3. Art Gonzales holds his position against a foe.
4. Pat Gifford inflicts pain upon an unworthy opponent.
5. Andy Huerta studies his opponent before making a move.

Varsity Hustles For Hoops



Top-Carol Whitmire, Tina Littlejohn, Susy Kuchta, Melissa Chisum, Bottom-Karen Wilson, Kristi Sullivan, Tina Hester, Denna Patton.

1. Carol Whitmire dribbles as Susy jostles for position.
2. Tina Hester calmly reaches for easy points.
3. Tina, Susy and Carol fight firecely for the rebound.
4. Tina Littlejohn before her sky-rocketing shot.
5. Denna Patton snags the rebound.



Coached by Art Gilbert for the "80" season, the girls' varsity basketball team tried its best to keep girls' basketball a winning sport at Alisal High School. Denna Patton set up the plays, but their opponents always got the bounces as the crowds and players screamed their disbelief at the ball which rolled around the rim and out time after time. The hard working Trojanettes never slackened their efforts though and with the brilliant plays from Denna Patton and Carol Whitmire, the outside shooting of Kristi Sullivan, Ticka Simon and Melissa Chisum, and the determination of Tina Hester, Tina Littlejohn and Susy Kuchta, they managed to post several impressive victories, proving once again that Alisal High is always alive.

The Alisal girls' j.v. basketball team dismally failed in its attempt for a winning season. Blaming lack of school support, Coach John Romero tried everything he could to revitalize his team. Bringing life to the team however were Ranelle Manaois and Diane Soriano who determinedly hustled up and down the court. Rowena Macaraeg made up for her size with outstanding shooting and ball handling as Sandra Fort utilized her height to bring down the loose balls. Despite their record, the girls had a real fun time and look forward to next year's action.

Spirited Freshmen Begin to Begin

Kenny Lau

Susan Oropeso

Aurora Echon

Pilar Pablo

The motivated freshman class chose "The Best Will Be In "83" as its motto. This new class wasted no time in organizing various money making activities. When it came to class competition, the freshmen showed the upperclassmen that they were full of spirit and enthusiasm. They won first place in the 1979-80 Football Homecoming Float Competition.

The rowdiness of the class was due to the successful efforts of the freshman class officers. Knockout Kenny Lau, president, always managed to get his point across to his fellow officers even if they never listened to him. Sunny Susan Oropesa, vice-president, always kept smiling even if things didn't go the way she wanted them to. Arousing Aurora Echon, secretary, managed to keep all the notes and minutes of all the endless meetings in order. Perky Pilar Pablo, treasurer, did a good job of keeping all the money going in instead of out of the treasury. The class was advised by jovial Jane Albano, jesting Jack Foreman, teasing Terry Espinoza and rowdy Richard Holifield. All in all the freshman class made its first year at Alisal a mellow one.

MGM Explores The Unknown.

As the dust from the floor finally settled, expedition leaders John Angelo and Nancy Bainter slowly opened the tomb. The candle light flickered as the fresh air hit the now lit candle. Followed by the students, this year's MGM class had once again launched into another mass adventure. As they entered the forgotten tomb, images started to appear as the light began to illuminate the crypt-like room. Mr. Angelo led them through the small corridors that hopefully led to the treasury room. They reached the end of the corridor only to find no door. Suddenly as Jesse Medina and Miguel Cano were leaning against the wall, they disappeared. Frantic that they wouldn't be found because they didn't have an excuse card to leave, John Angelo hurridely tried to find the opening in the wall where they had disappeared. BANG! The door rushed opened. There they were looking at the huge coffin which resembled King Tut except for the mustache and glasses. Could this be John Angelo's forgotten ancestors? Who knows? Only time can tell . . . Among this young group of adventures were president of MGM, Mi Won Pak, vice-president, Florinda Manaois, secretary, Sherri Neal, and treasurer, Jesse Medina. Not only did they get lost seeing King Tut, but they attended the NUTCRACKER ballet, numerous plays, produced various movies, and with the production of KING TUT: THE MOVIE, had their own Academy Awards.

C.S.F. Skates Towards Academic Perfection

It was a cold and windy night in the City of Salinas. All was quiet on Main Street as Mark Amiya, president, and Dennis Lee, treasurer, went whizzing by on skates. Pursuing them in a stifling sprint where Richard Shido, vice-president, and Julia Tashiro secretary. Cars honked in protest as Jane Albano, advisor, screamed at the C.F.S. leaders as they weaved in and out of the cars. This was one time Ms. Albano was not going to follow the leader! Diane Soriano aided her friend off the sidewalk for the hundredth time. Some people just never learn how to skate!! Ticka Simon was playing roller derby against some North High football players. The players ended up going to the hospital with multiple fractures. As the clock neared midnight, the tired C.S.F. members went home to yet another day of hard work in order to keep up the good grades. Thoughts of activities to come such as the fall banquet, the memorable sealbearer dinner, and, last but not least, the year-around tutoring sessions, filled their minds with memories of good times and those yet to come.

As the sun descended slowly onto the deserted field, silence crept upon the faces of the disolute crowd. Faintly in the distance one could hear the beating of drums as the first of the Alisal High Marching Band entered the open field. Led by returning drum major Victor Aguilar, the ever familiar cadence began as it was followed by the Alisal fightsong. Heading off the band were the energetic lettergirls followed by the band itself and demonstrating their skill were the graceful Alisal flag girls. Upon the field they brought onto the now enthusiastic crowd an uncontrollable desire to cheer. Directing this year's band was newcomer Mr. D. Mulder providing both Alisal and Salinas High with his guidance and direction. This school year proved once again that Alisal High's spirit reigns high.

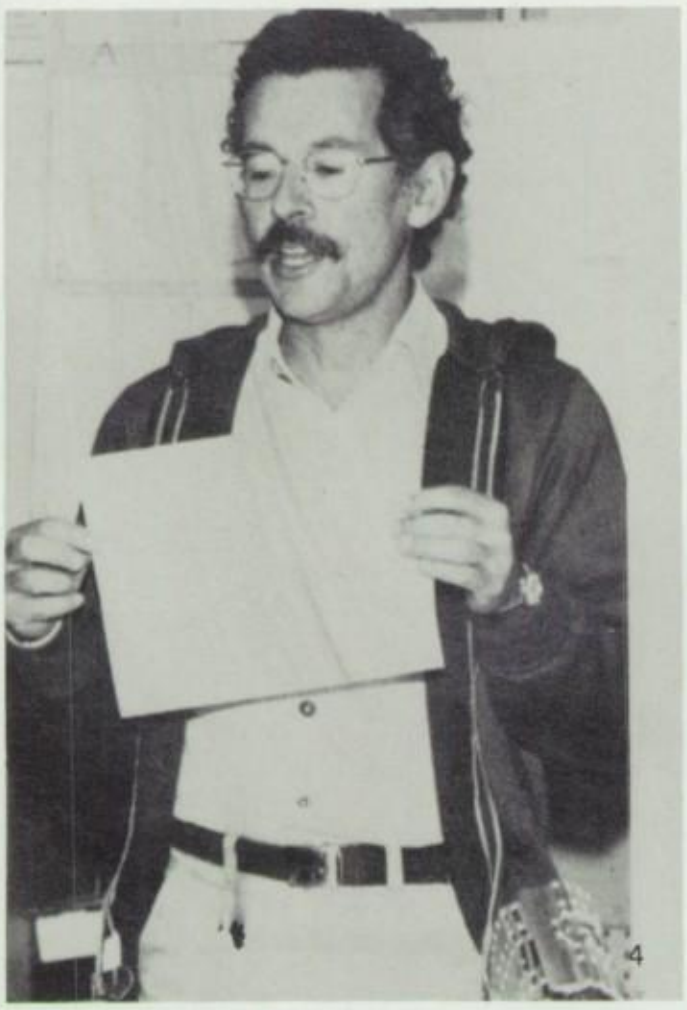
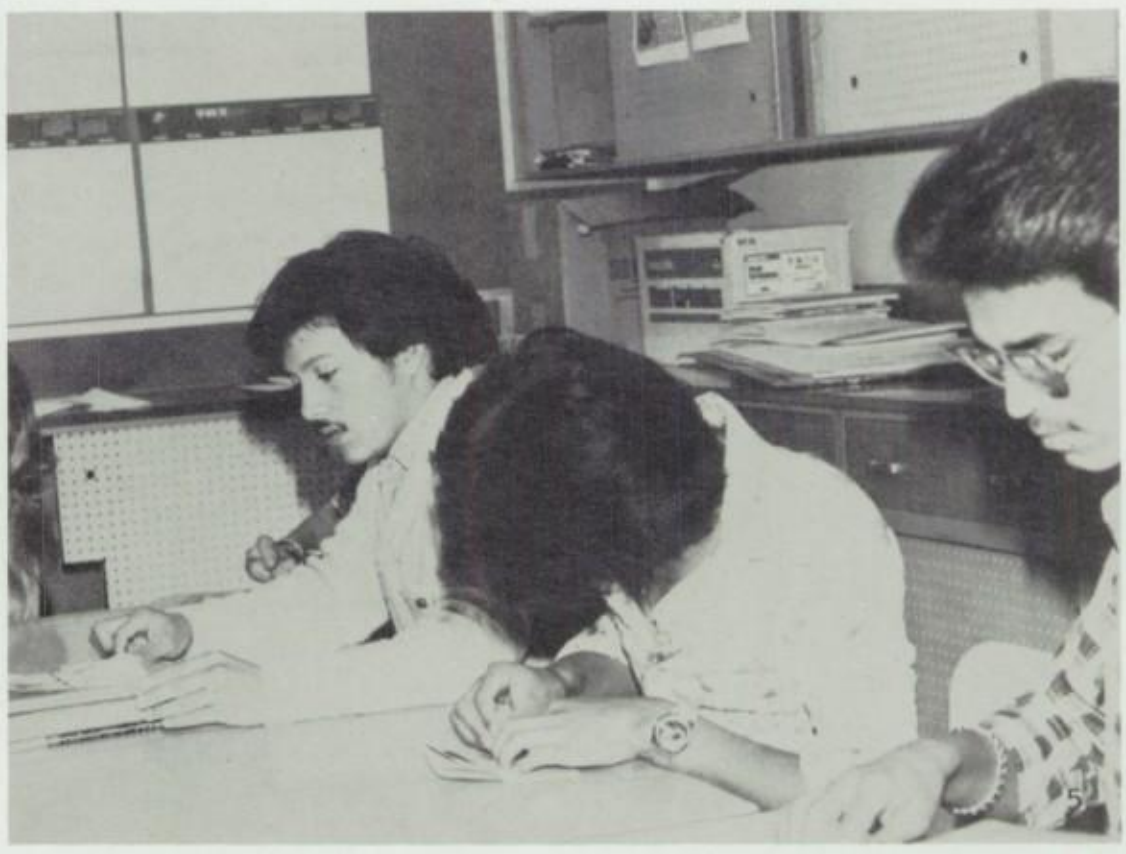
Tribuners Hectically Report The Facts





Another Trojan Tribune deadline approached and the class turned into a frenzy of activity as the advisor Ron Contreras stomped into the classroom. Ellen Bartlett, the editor in chief, tried frantically to organize the work of Bruno Miramontez, manager, Abel Rodriguez, sports editor, Davis Onitsuka and Josephine Pena, page editors, and the rest of the hectic staff as Mr. Contreras stood fuming by his chair. Luckily, the Trojan Tribune staff performed well under pressure and managed to get their pages in, kept their grade up in the class, and most important contained an explosive Ron Contreras from losing his mind.

Staffers Lay Out Memories for Trojan '80

The tardy bell had barely rung as we rushed half asleep to our first period class. Even though not one of us had the strength to keep our eyes open for the daily entrance to class of our illustrious advisor, some of us did have the strength for an occasional yawn. As copies, layouts and miscellaneous items were frantically thrown in order to make it look as if we were working, a sudden flash of light entered the room from the doorway itself. In the background one could hear the strange sound of blacksmiths and clammering of anvils as steam rose slowly from where our leader, Mr. John Angelo, stood. It wasn't that we sweated to get our deadlines in on time or, if we missed one, that his partner, Trojan '80 editor Linda Pollock would flog us. It was the unity from this mere influence that finally forced us to get our act together. Helping as editors for the 1980 Trojan yearbook were Carmen Oropesa, activities; Miguel Cano, sports; Karen Lesney, organizations; Jeannie Bryant, ads; Ernie Leyba, seniors; Idalia Magdaleno, classes and Jess Medina, faculty. Providing miscellaneous and added frustration were staffers Bobby Asuncion, Emil De Guzman, John Fennell, Jennifer Hardin, Sherri Kelly, Ernie Rojas, Don Staggs. Finally, the staff of 1980 was able with its unequaled determination to put together one of this school's finest pieces of journalistic work ever assembled.

Elvira Arrives From Brazil

On Feb. 10, 1979, Elvira Arias left Salinas and went South of the Border to Volta Rodanda, Brazil. Although she was nervous at first, Elvira was fascinated to see and learn all she could about this country which was new to her. The first thing she did was meet her host family and host sister, Angela Christina, who was 19. School in Brazil was very different for Elvira. Her class consisted of 150 students. Elvira's other various activities included being a member in the Social/Sports Club and teaching Mexican dance to junior high students. Learning and having fun was a big part of Elvira's stay in Brazil. Leaving Brazil was sad for Elvira, but she was happy to come home again.

1. Teaching Mexican dance was among Elvira's various activities.
2. Elvira poses for a picture at an old sugar refinery.

Jason Powers, Brent Weaver and sophomore runner Joe Price powerhoused the 1980 Track and Field season by setting blistering times in their events. Running at his best, Jason Powers blazed to three first place finishes in the 100, 220 and 440 yard sprints against North County and Santa Cruz. Frosh-Soph runners Richard Juarez, Darryl Parks, and Dan Lewis also piled up the points in the long distant races, while the rest of the team hurdled, jumped, leaped, sprinted, shotputted and threw discus to the best of their abilities. Leading the girls' team were Jennifer Hardin and Betty Jo Johnson as they strained for personal records. 1. Jeff Hargrave pulls in front of the pack.
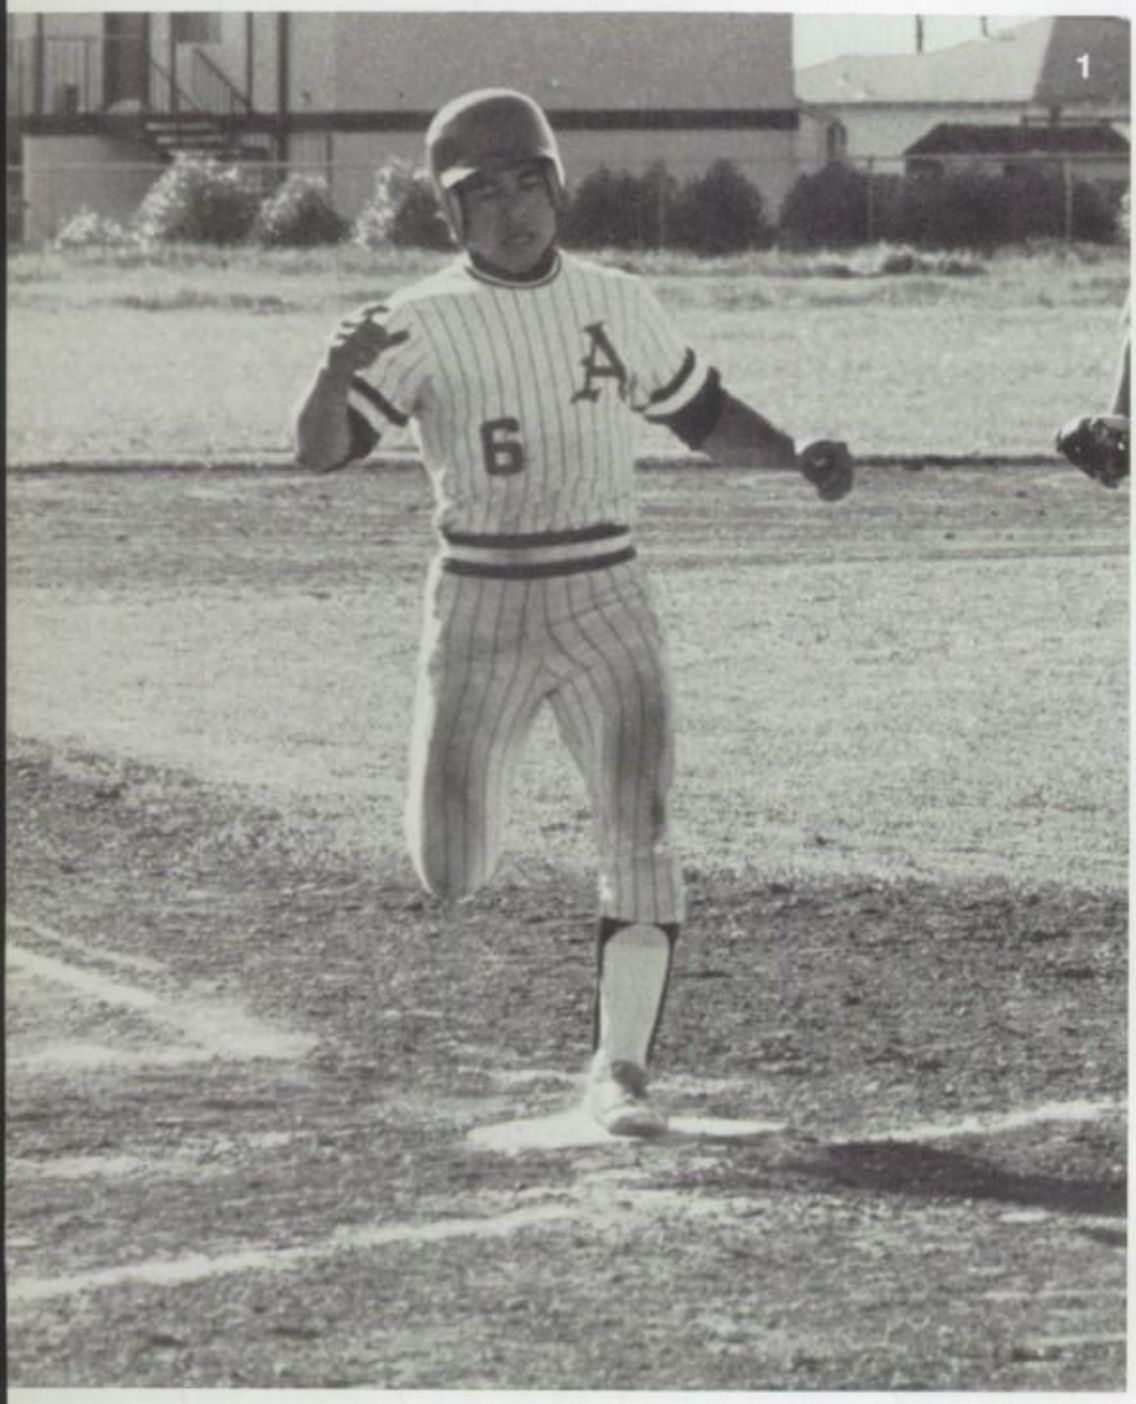
2. Straining every muscle in the shot put event helps Manuel Ceja get the distance.
3. Russ Hauschild finishes in front in another speedster race.
4. Skimming over the hurdles is Janie Diaz as she tries to catch the field.
5. John Grant lunges for the tape after leaving his opponents in the dust.
6. Tony hurls the discus with a powerful twist of his upper body.
7. Jason Powers wins again as he breezes across the line.
8. Keeping pace with the pack is Lalo Trujillo.

Varsity Baseball Strikes Up The Action



1. David Yonemitsu scores a hard-earned run.
2. Beating the throw to first is Chuck Dillard.
3. Ron Bowlin tags a grounder to left field.
4. David Cariaga slides to safety as Coach Mortenson looks on.
5. Stealing third is Ron Bowlin.
6. Chuck Dillard swings with power.

The Alisal Trojan's varsity baseball team kept plugging away as it started its season on a bitter note. Losing its first three games by a heartbreaking margin of a single run, the Alisal varsity baseball team staunchly stood its ground with impressive plays from second-baseman David Yonemitsu and outfielders Greg Nance and Chuck Dillard. Coach Gary Mortensen and his assistant Ed Richards provided their baseball skills by signaling in the plays and yelling encouragement to the players. Throwing their curve and fast balls were Ron Bowlin and Bob Asuncion as Mark Hotsko readied himself behind the plate waiting for the ball. The "80" season started out slowly for the baseball team but the combined efforts of all the players made each game exciting for the spectators to watch.

Trojans Show Upcoming Talent

The count was 1 and 2, one out, and the bases were loaded. "Come on Bill, rip one," yelled a spectator. Bill Sims stepped back into the batter's box. He glanced at his coach, Ruben Vasquez, for the sign. Green light. The opposing pitcher wound up and delivered the ball with tremendous velocity. Sims unleashed his fury with a swat to left-center. "Go, Bill, go," screamed his teammates as they showed their elation by jumping up and down. Bill circled second as the ball was being thrown in. Bill and the ball seemed to reach third base at the same time, but as the dust cleared, the umpire signaled the runner safe. Also providing an offensive threat were Richard Uto and Bobby Moe. On the mound hurling the team to victories were pitchers James Owens and Gabe Ramirez. These moments and others provided the 1980 Alisal junior varsity baseball team with an encouraging season.

"Home!" yelled Coach Davidson as David Carillo whizzed by third base. Waving their arms wildly, the rest of the frosh-soph baseball team exploded with yells and screams as the ball was relayed to the oppsoing team's shortstop. David Carillo threw himself at the home plate amidst a shower of dirt and gravel as the throw came in to the catcher who wildly flung out his mitt for the tag. "He's safe!" roared the Alisal Spectators as they saw through the clearing dust, the ump with outstretched arms. This and other highlights such as the pitching of Adolfo Sanchez and the quick plays by Bill McGhee gave Coach Davidson the satisfaction of a good season for the 1980 frosh-soph baseball team.

1. Adolfo Sanchez hurls the ball with devastating speed.
2. Rico Negranza watches as his throw is relayed in to home plate.
3. King of the mound, Adolfo Sanchez eyes his opponent before delivering his pitch.
4. Jose Magdaleno rounds the bases after connecting with a wicked smash to the ball.
5. A Trojan dives to safety on first base.

Softball Reigns In Full Force

Just a few names such as Denna Patton, Melissa Chisum, Ticka Simon, Theresa Gandy and Lani Canete assured the Alisal spectators of a success as most of the girls returned this year for another M.B.L. title. Coach Florence Camany was very enthusiastic about their chances of winning, especially with the whirlwind quickness of Charlene Armstrong's accurate pitching and the overall strength in Alisal's 1980 varsity softball team.

1. Karen Wilson launches a throw from the outfield.
2. Reaching first base is Melissa Chisum as she sprints across the bag.
3. Charlene Armstrong shows her form after unleashing a pitch.
4. Winding up for the throw to first base is Tina Hester.
5. Ticka Simon strategically bunts the ball before taking off.
6. Soaring high to catch the fly ball is many-talented Denna Patton.

Hoping to maintain softball's winning streak at Alisal, the girls' junior varsity softball team looked very promising this year as it started its season with several outstanding wins. Romping over Salinas High's Cowbabes with a score of 12 to 2, the junior varsity Trojanettes assured themselves with hopes of at least a city championship this year as they defeated team after team. Backed by the power of Kim Anthony, Diane Soriano, Ester Simon and a few others, the team promised to become a winning sport for Alisal and keep alive softball's tradition of supremacy at the diamond.

1. Even on her knees, number 26 makes a good play on the ball.
2. Diane Soriano watches as her teammate belts one out to left field.
3. Swinging in hopes of a home run is Alicia Beltran.
4. Aurora Jimenez exchanges the ball to her right for the throw.
5. Caution is important as Robin Stone warily watches the ball.
6. A perfect slide saves this Trojanette from being tagged out.

Fulfilling fantasies is not an easy task for anyone, but this year's yearbook staff has tried to fulfill many people's dreams. We all worked very hard and each staff member deserves a special thanks. So,

THANK YOU:

Miguel, for being CONFUSED about the sports section.

Ernie L., for the endless hours put in trying to decipher the senior blurbs.

Carmen, for always being late because of her make-up and for her terrific artwork.

Karen, for standing up to our advisor and for doing the organization section in her own special way.

Idalia(Mudd), for contributing to the loss of fifty pictures (fortunately she did a great job on the rest of the classes section).

Jesse, for smacking it up to the teachers for the faculty section.

Jeannie and Emil for keeping the whole class in suspense about the ads section.

Donny, for typing, drawing layouts, and anything else he could get away with, without leaving his desk.

Bobby, for helping Miguel with his confusion with sports.

Sherri, Jennifer, and Ernie R., for keeping us all aware of the Alisal gossip.

John, for taking(and burning) pictures when we couldn't find anyone else to do it.

A special thanks to:

Lito Javier, for taking pictures around campus when nothing was happening around campus anyway.

Ed Avila, for taking tremdous pictures on short notice. There would have been no book without him.

And to Mr. J.A.A. Angelo, our advisor. Thank you for your crummy jokes, your witty laugh, but mostly for kicking, yelling, throwing tantrums, etc. when we wouldn't do anything.

Thank You Everyone

Doug Dixon, a junior w years of journalism expe will be next year's Feature tor. Steve Bellone, assiste Armando Franco, will be charge of the Sports Secti Steve has had one year of e perience and Armando also wit one year of experience.

Karen Bailey will hold the job of Ad Manager and Lucy Stone will hold the position of Business Manager.

Next year's distribution manager is Rosanne Ryburn, and photography will be Amaro.

ALISAL WRESTLERS ARE CCS CHAMPIONS

The Trojan wrestlers continued to prove their strength by capturing the first place team trophy in the Central Coast Section.

The C.C.S. is composed of 130 schools. Winning the section would amount to a state championship in over half the schools in the United States.

David Ceja is Alisal's outstanding heavyweight who led the way for Alisal by claiming the heavyweight championship for the second year in a row. The win was especially great, in that the final match David defeated Joe Da- 6th in the state last is the only wrestler to defeat Roger this season. Diaz lost by a one-point margin.

Javier Alvarez also contributed heavily to the Alisal point total by advancing to the finals and finishing second to Overfelt's Dave Cotti.

Mark Yamaguchi completed a fine season by posting a 3-2 won-lost record for the day. Art Ocampo also represented Alisal in the meet. He failed to qualify for state, but did a good job for the team all year long.

Ceja and Diaz advanced to the state finals at Bakersfield.

To a cool dude I was happy to know while I was at Alisal High. You know, I am glad to have you as my friend. Well, as you know I'm graduating. (Finally) I had a rough time but when I saw you, you always made me smile you have been a friend that liked to have fun Though, I am graduating, I shall never forget my friends here at A.H.S.. Especially you, because you have the kind of face nobody can forget (think about that!) I shall miss you very much but maybe when I come back to visit I shall see you. You're a great guy and one who will go to the top. That's all I can think of now, but I hope you get my drift and anything else I have to say, I can tell you in person.

Have a good and productive life with whom ever you happen to love. (Any girl who picks you must be crazy!) kidding!! Good Bye to a fantastic friend and class mate! You'll always be in my heart.
